Mike Tomlin Bio

MIKE TOMLIN was named the 16th head coach in Pittsburgh Steelers history on Jan. 22, 2007. Hired at the age of 34, Tomlin became only the third head coach hired by the Steelers since 1969.

Tomlin became the youngest head coach in NFL history to both coach in and win a Super Bowl when he led the Steelers to a 27-23 victory over the Arizona Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII. By winning the Super Bowl in only his second season as a head coach, he also became the fastest to win Super Bowl a title in Steelers history.

Tomlin is one of only seven coaches in league history to win a Super Bowl within his first two seasons as an NFL head coach.

Tomlin finished his second season with a 12-4 regular-season record and his second consecutive AFC North Division title, becoming the only Steelers head coach to win division crowns in each of his first two seasons. He also set a record with 22 regular-season wins in his first two years at the helm and is the only Steelers head coach to win at least 10 games in each of his first two seasons. Tomlin's .688 winning percentage (22-10) after two years is the best in Steelers history.

The Steelers' defense was dominant under Tomlin's guidance in 2008, leading the NFL in total defense (237.2), pass defense (156.9), points per game (13.9), total yards per play (3.9), rushing yards per attempt (3.3), passing yards per attempt (4.7) and third down efficiency (31.4), and finished second in league rushing defense (80.3).

Tomlin led the Steelers to a 10-6 record in 2007, and became just the second coach in team history to post a winning record, win a division title and earn a playoff berth in his inaugural season.

Tomlin guided the Steelers to the NFL's top-ranked defense in 2007, yielding only 266.4 yards per game. The Steelers' defense ranked third in the NFL against both the run (89.9 avg.) and pass (176.5 avg.), and also finished third in the league in total yards allowed per play (4.6). Pittsburgh's defense led the NFL in passing yards per play (5.7) and first downs allowed per game (15.6), and finished second in the league in points allowed per game (16.8).

The Steelers' offense finished third in the NFL in rushing (135.5 avg.) during Tomlin's first season, sparked by RB Willie Parker who led the league in rushing before injuring his leg in Week 16. Steelers QB Ben Roethlisberger enjoyed a record-setting season during Tomlin's first year, establishing new team records for touchdown passes (32) and passer rating (104.1), while earning his first career Pro Bowl appearance. In 2007, the Steelers held the advantage in time of possession in 14-of-16 regular season games.

Tomlin was the NFL's second-youngest head coach in 2007, and he became only the second Steelers coach in team history to win at least 10 games during his first year at the helm. The Steelers posted a 7-1 record at home in 2007 and were 5-1 in the AFC North (3-0 at home).

Tomlin became only the second Steelers head coach to win his first three games. During 2007, the Steelers became just the fifth team in NFL history to win their first four home games by at least 20 points.

Tomlin spent the 2006 season as the Minnesota Vikings' defensive coordinator after spending the previous five seasons (2001-05) as defensive backs coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Under Tomlin in 2006, the Vikings ranked eighth in the NFL in total defense and first against the run while not allowing a 100-yard rusher the entire season. They held the Detroit Lions to minus-three yards rushing while playing on the road (Dec. 10).

Prior to his one season in Minnesota, Tomlin was the defensive backs coach for five seasons for one of the NFL's top defenses in Tampa Bay. Tomlin's defensive backs earned numerous honors for their play during his coaching tenure. In 2005 Tampa Bay led the NFL in total defense, allowing 277.8 yards per game, and finished 6th in the league against the pass (183.1 avg.).

In 2002 Tomlin guided one of the most productive defensive backfields in the NFL, culminating with its performance in Super Bowl XXXVII. The secondary recorded four of the team's five interceptions, returning two for touchdowns to help Tampa Bay capture the franchise's first Super Bowl title.

Before joining Tampa Bay's staff, Tomlin served two seasons as the defensive backs coach at the University of Cincinnati (1999-00). He took over a secondary that ranked 111th in the nation in pass defense in 1998 and helped them improve to 61st overall in his first season in '99. Under Tomlin's direction in 2000, the Bearcats ranked eighth in the nation in interceptions as well as fourth nationally in total turnovers.

Prior to joining the Cincinnati staff, Tomlin had a short stint on the coaching staff at Tennessee-Martin and then spent two seasons at Arkansas State where he coached wide receivers in 1997 before switching to defensive backs in 1998. Tomlin spent the 1996 season as a graduate assistant at the University of Memphis, where he worked with the Tiger defensive backs and special teams units. He began his coaching career in 1995 as wide receivers coach at Virginia Military Institute.

Tomlin was a three-year starter at wide receiver at William and Mary (1990-94) and finished his career with 101 receptions for 2,046 yards and a school-record 20 TD catches. A first-team All-Yankee Conference selection in 1994, he established a school record with a 20.2 yards-per-catch average.

Re: phone conversation with President Obama
Actually I couldn't hear him. I heard a congratulations and I thanked him for it, but I didn't hear much of the conversation.

Re: if he could have imagined himself winning the Super Bowl
Yes I could. That's what we all work for. That's the planning that we put in for it, like 31 other guys. Somebody's going to be the one, and I'm just thankful that it's us this year."

Re: the many momentum shifts in the game
There's going to be ebb and flow. Let's face it, Arizona is a great team. I take my hat off to those guys, players and coaches, administrators. This is what the Super Bowl is supposed to be about. It was, and hopefully the fans of football enjoyed it.

Re: his team dealing with the momentum shifts
I wasn't surprised in the least bit about that. If you look at our story this football season, that has been our story. We had to win the division in Baltimore under similar circumstances. Our guys don't blink.

Re: the momentum shifts of the game
That's been our story all year. We've got a team that doesn't blink in the face of adversity. It's never going to be pretty or perfect, if you will, but they've got a great deal of belief in one another. They've got a great deal of resolve, and it was put on display. Our defense gets a lot of recognition for what they're capable of, and rightfully so, but what you saw from our quarterback and our offense at the end of that football game is what they've provided for us all year. When we've needed it the most, they've done it and done it big. That's a rerun for us. We did that in Baltimore to win the division. We're a team and that's why there's no division in our locker room, because those guys know that when the chips are down, number seven and company will ante up and kick in. I'm just so happy and proud of them. If I could win any way, it would be like that. All people being involved and having to deliver for us is truly special. As a coach, it's special.

Re: the Lombardi trophy
I actually never even touched it. I see five of them everyday when I do go to work. I know what they look like. I'm just glad that I can do my part in terms of contributing to that trophy case.

Re: Santonio Holmes
Santonio is a guy that just loves to deliver in big moments and in big games. I think I said it earlier in the week at one of the eight or nine interview sessions I had: what he did tonight was similar to what he did in the month of January in the playoffs to get to this game, and was also similar to what he did for us in Baltimore to win the division. In big moments, we know what we can get from him and we appreciate it.

Re: Ben Roethlisberger's progress from his last Super Bowl
He's not the same guy he was in the last one. He was a young guy in the last one. He's a franchise quarterback that we have a long-term commitment to. He's our guy, and he showed why today.

Coach Mike Tomlin

What was your thought process when Larry Fitzgerald scored late in the game?
I actually was thinking that if they're going to score, that's how you want them to score: extremely quickly as opposed to just milking it and just going down the field and then not having enough time to execute a two-minute drive. As soon as we missed the tackle and he was running down the field, I probably was over it by the time he got in the endzone because we've just been in those situations so many times. (They're) never pretty, but (we) never blink either.

What did you say at halftime?
We talk about moments. We talk about (the fact that) games are decided in situational football, and we back up that talk with action in terms of how build our team, how we prepare. We probably practice two-minute, redzone, goal line, short yardage (situations) more than a lot of teams. When you watch highlight shows, that's the football game. It's not the first-and-10 plays or the second-and-five plays, unless they go 75 yards and hit their head on the goalposts. We embrace those moments; we believe we were built for those moments, and the guys proved it with their play. At halftime, I said the same thing that I said before the game. The things that run through a team's mind during a game like this—you don't want to give them too much to think about. I told the guys to honor the men that have come before them in this game with how they play. There are a lot of people who played the game of professional football, and their personal sacrifice has created an opportunity that this game is what it is today. How we play the game needed to add to that. We wanted to play physical. We wanted to honor those guys with how we played today. Hopefully, we did that.

Re: questionable calls
I don't comment on officiating. I haven't done it all year. I'm not going to start today. Officials don't determine the outcome of games and truly; coaches don't determine the outcome of the game, unless they screw it up. Players make plays; players win games."

Steelers' Postseason Notes:

• The announced crowd of 65,350 at the 2008 AFC Championship Game was the largest crowd in Heinz Field history, surpassing the 2004 AFC Championship Game total of 65,242 against New England on Jan. 23, 2005.

• The Steelers captured the AFC North Division title for the second straight season and the third time since divisions were re-aligned in 2002.

• The Steelers defeated the Baltimore Ravens, 23-14, for their first-ever AFC Championship Game victory at Heinz Field (where they are 1-2) and their first in Pittsburgh since a 20-16 victory over the Indianapolis Colts on Jan. 14, 1996. Pittsburgh's win over the Ravens at home in the AFC title game snapped a three-game losing streak in such games in Pittsburgh.

• Pittsburgh improved to 7-7 all-time in AFC Championship Games, including a 5-5 record at home and a 2-2 record on the road. The Steelers' 14 appearances in AFC Championship Games are tied for the most in AFC/AFL history with the Oakland Raiders.

• The Steelers have played in 51 all-time playoff games, which is second behind Dallas (56).

• The Steelers are 3-0 in the postseason when playing a team a third time after sweeping the season series (Baltimore - 2008; Cleveland - 1994, 2004).

• Pittsburgh is 3-0 in AFC Championship Games at home when playing a team for the third time in the same season. The Steelers swept the Ravens in 2008, and they split the home-and-home series versus the Houston Oilers in both 1978 and 1979. • The Steelers have been shut out only once in the postseason, during the 1947 Eastern Division Playoff game, Dec. 21, 1947, versus the Philadelphia Eagles. The Steelers and Eagles finished that season with 8-4 records and tied for first place in the Eastern Division. In those days, there was only one NFL Championship Game, so the two Pennsylvania neighbors squared off for the right to face the Chicago Cardinals in the Championship Game. The Eagles won, 21-0, but lost in the Championship Game, 28-21, to the Cardinals, the same franchise the Steelers faced in Super Bowl XLIII.

• The Steelers record for fewest points allowed in a playoff game is five, during a 34-5 win in the 1978 AFC Championship Game versus the Houston Oilers at Three Rivers Stadium, Jan. 7, 1979. 2008 POSTSEASON TEAM NOTES

Putting Up The Points: Pittsburgh's 35 points in the AFC Divisional Playoff Game vs. San Diego are the most for the Steelers in the postseason since a 36-33 victory over Cleveland in the 2002 AFC Wild Card Game.

The Steelers scored a franchise-best 42 points at home in a 42-14 victory over the Indianapolis Colts in the 1996 AFC Wild Card Game.

Sack Attack: In the 2008 postseason, the Steelers posted nine sacks, including a 2008 Steelers' postseason-high four in the AFC Divisional Playoff win over the San Diego Chargers.

LB LaMarr Woodley had six sacks in those three games, including two in Super Bowl XLIII, to lead the team, while DE Brett Keisel, LB James Harrison and DE Aaron Smith each tallied one.

In four postseason games during the Mike Tomlin era, Pittsburgh has posted 13 total sacks.

Turning The Tables: In three postseason games in 2008, the Steelers had a plus-six (+6) turnover advantage as they forced five interceptions and three fumble recoveries while giving up just one fumble and one interception.

The Steelers did not commit a turnover in the AFC Divisional Playoff Game against the San Diego Chargers. The last time the Steelers did not commit a turnover in the postseason was in the 2005 AFC Championship Game at Denver. In that matchup, Pittsburgh forced two interceptions and two fumbles.

Rushing Roulette: Pittsburgh rushed for 165 yards in the AFC Divisional Playoff win against San Diego, its highest rushing total in the postseason since it posted 181 rushing yards in Super Bowl XL against the Seattle Seahawks.

Pittsburgh finished the regular season ranked 13th in the AFC and 23rd in the NFL in rushing offense, averaging 105.6 yards per game.

Third-Quarter Takeover: Pittsburgh held the ball for 14:43 in the third quarter of the AFC Divisional Playoff Game against San Diego as the Chargers were able to run just one offensive play.

In the quarter, Pittsburgh picked off QB Philip Rivers on San Diego's lone offensive play. The Steelers also took control on a Chargers' muffed punt.

The one offensive play for San Diego is the fewest in a quarter in the playoffs in the NFL in the Super Bowl era (since 1966). The previous low was three by Arizona against Minnesota on Jan. 10, 1999.

In No Rush: The Steelers allowed a total of 121 rushing yards in three postseason games in 2008, including only 15 to the Chargers in the AFC Divisional Playoff Game and 33 to the Arizona Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII.

In the regular season, the Steelers finished second in the NFL in rushing defense allowing 80.3 yards per game.

Dominating The Clock: The Steelers held the ball for an average of 34:13 during the 2008 postseason.

Pittsburgh held the ball for 36:30 in the AFC Divisional Playoff Game against the Chargers, 33:09 against the Baltimore Ravens in the AFC Championship Game and 33:01 versus the Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII.

TEAM NOTES

AFC North Division Champions: Pittsburgh captured its second straight AFC North Division championship after its 13-9 victory over the Baltimore Ravens in Week 15.

Head Coach Mike Tomlin became the first coach in team history to win the division in his first two seasons as head coach.

The Steelers clinched a first-round bye in the postseason and the No. 2 seed.

Pittsburgh has won an AFC-best 19 division titles since the NFL merger in 1970.

Divisional Dominance: Pittsburgh finished the 2008 season undefeated against AFC North Division foes. It marked the first time since 2002 the Steelers had an unblemished record in divisional play (6-0).

Pittsburgh finished the 2007 season 5-1 against AFC North foes. The Steelers' lone loss within the division last year was in the regular-season finale at Baltimore when Pittsburgh rested a number of starters after already clinching the AFC North crown.

The Steelers have won 13 of their last 15 games against divisional opponents.

Conference Control: The Steelers finished the season with a 12-4 mark, including an impressive 10-2 record against AFC opponents.

Pittsburgh's 10-2 record within the conference tied for the best mark in the NFL with Indianapolis. The last time Pittsburgh finished with a better record against AFC opponents was in 2004 when it finished 11-1.

Blanking The Browns: Pittsburgh recorded its only shutout of the 2008 season when it defeated the Cleveland Browns, 31-0, at Heinz Field in Week 17. It marked the first shutout for Pittsburgh since it defeated the Miami Dolphins, 3-0, on Nov. 26, 2007.

The Steelers' 31-0 victory was also the first shutout in the series for Pittsburgh since a 41-0 triumph in Cleveland on Dec. 24, 2005. Pittsburgh has shut out the Browns six times since the series began in 1950.

Shutting Down The Scoreboard: Pittsburgh finished the 2008 season by allowing an NFL-low 223 points, an average of 13.9 points per game. The 223 points are the fewest against the Steelers since they allowed only 212 points during the 2001 season, an average of 13.3.

Dominating Defense: Pittsburgh came up just short of finishing the season the league leader in all four major defensive categories (rushing defense, passing defense, total defense, scoring defense).

The Steelers led the NFL in total defense (237.2 avg.), pass defense (156.9 avg.) and scoring defense (13.9 avg.), and finished second in rushing defense (80.3 avg.) to Minnesota. Pittsburgh nearly became the first team since the 1991 Philadelphia Eagles to lead the league in rush defense, pass defense and total defense.

Pittsburgh could also have become the first team to lead the league in all four categories since the NFL merger in 1970. The last team to lead the league in all four categories was the 1969 Kansas City Chiefs, who led the AFL that season.

Additionally, the 80.3 rushing yards per game the Steelers allowed are the least for Pittsburgh since 2001 (74.7 avg.) and the second-least by the Steelers since the NFL merger in 1970.

The Steelers' 2,511 passing yards allowed were the fewest since they allowed 2,500 in 1990. It also marks the team's third-lowest total during the 16-game schedule era (began in 1978).

Sustaining Success: Pittsburgh has made the playoffs five times and won the AFC North four times since the divisional realignment in 2002. The Steelers won the AFC North Division for the second consecutive year in 2008.

The Steelers have won 19 division titles since the NFL merger in 1970, the most in the AFC during that time. The 2008 season also marks the fourth time they captured the AFC North Crown since 2002.

The following is a list of teams that have won the most division titles and qualified for the playoffs since 2002:

Team	Playoffs	Division Titles
Indianapolis	7	5
Pittsburgh	5	4
New England	5	5
Seattle	5	4
Philadelphia	4	4
Green Bay	4	4

Clamping Down: The Steelers tied an NFL record by keeping their first 14 opponents of the season under 300 yards of total offense.

The Steelers held every opponent to less than 300 yards of total offense until they yielded 323 to Tennessee in Week 16. The 14 straight games tied the 1973 Los Angeles Rams for the longest streak to start a season in the NFL since the merger in 1970.

The following is a look at the list of the NFL's three longest streaks of not allowing an opponent to gain 300 yards of offense:

Team	Streak	Season
Pittsburgh Steelers	14	2008
L.A. Rams	14	1973
San Francisco 49ers	12	1997

If You Build It, They Will Come: The Steelers averaged 62,890 fans in 2008, the third-highest attendance average in team history.

The Steelers broke the single-game attendance record at Heinz Field in the 2008 AFC Championship Game when 65,350 fans watched them defeat the Baltimore Ravens en route to Super Bowl XLIII.

The Steelers set a regular-season attendance record in Week 8 when 64,991 fans watched them play the New York Giants. It was also the third-largest attendance figure in Heinz Field history.

Pittsburgh set the team home attendance record in 2005 by averaging 63,429 (507,434 total).

Pittsburgh has sold out 281 straight games at home, dating back to Nov. 5, 1972 versus Cincinnati.

Pittsburgh's largest average attendance at Three Rivers Stadium was 58,077 in 1998. Following is a look at the team's average attendance in its seven years at Heinz Field:

Defense! Defense! Defense!: The Steelers defense once again gave opponents fits in 2008 as it ranked in the top three in the NFL in several categories.

The Steelers ranked first in the NFL in total defense, allowing just 237.2 yards per game. Pittsburgh had 20 interceptions in 2008 and posted an AFC-best 51 sacks. The Steelers allowed a league-low 3.9 yards per play, the lowest of any defense in the NFL since 1978.

Pittsburgh ranked in the top three in the NFL in several other defensive categories, including passing net yards/game (156.9, 1st), passing net yards/play (4.7, 1st), first-down yards plays/opponent (3.93, 1st), red-zone efficiency (33.3, 1st), third-down efficiency (31.4, 1st), points/game (13.9, 1st), rushing yards/attempt (3.3, 1st), rushing yards/game (80.3, 2nd) and first downs/game (15.0, 2nd).

In the regular-season finale against the Cleveland Browns, Pittsburgh limited the Browns to just 20 yards passing.

In Week 13 at New England, Pittsburgh held QB Matt Cassel to just 169 yards passing while picking him off twice and sacking him five times in the game after he had posted , consecutive 400-yard passing games.

In Week 8, the Steelers limited the New York Giants' league-leading rushing attack to just 83 yards on 35 attempts (2.4 avg.). The Giants entered the game averaging 169.7 yards per game on the ground.

The 2008 season piggybacked off of the Steelers' 2007 defensive efforts, when they led the league in total defense (266.4 avg.).

Picking Your Poison: The Steelers had 20 interceptions on the year, which ranked third (tied) in the AFC and sixth (tied) in the NFL. Pittsburgh posted at least one interception in six of the final seven games of the regular season.

Pittsburgh had two interceptions in its regular-season finale against the Cleveland Browns, both by S Tyrone Carter. Carter returned one for a 32-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter.

The Steelers also picked off two passes in Week 15 at Baltimore, including one by CB William Gay with less than 20 seconds remaining to seal the victory.

The Steelers had three interceptions in their Week 14 victory versus the Dallas Cowboys, highlighted by a 25-yard interception return for a touchdown by CB Deshea Townsend that gave Pittsburgh the victory with just under two minutes remaining in the game. CB Ike Taylor and S Troy Polamalu each had picks in the win over Dallas.

For the year, Polamalu had a team-best seven interceptions, which was a career high. Carter was second with three interceptions in 2008.

Turning Up the Heat: Pittsburgh finished first in the AFC and second in the NFL with 51 sacks. The 51 sacks were the most since the Steelers had a team-record-tying 55 sacks in 2001.

The Steelers recorded a season-high seven sacks (twice) in the Week 7 victory at the Cincinnati Bengals and the Week 9 victory at the Washington Redskins.

Since 1994, the Steelers have led the AFC in sacks four times and the entire NFL twice.

Sacks became an official NFL statistic in 1982, however, a record of "passers tackled" was kept prior to that time. Following are the Steelers' single-season sack totals dating back to 1970:

Pick Six: The Steelers returned two interceptions for touchdowns in 2008.

S Tyrone Carter, who started in place of the injured S Ryan Clark, picked off a pass in the regular-season finale against the Cleveland Browns and returned it 32 yards for a touchdown. Carter finished with two interceptions against the Browns.

CB Deshea Townsend intercepted a Tony Romo pass with less than two minutes remaining and returned it 25 yards for a touchdown in the Week 14 victory versus the Dallas Cowboys.

Townsend's game-winning interception marked the first time in the Super Bowl era (since 1966) that the Steelers winning score came on an interception return for a touchdown in the last two minutes of the fourth quarter or overtime.

Townsend has three career interception returns for a touchdown, but this was his first since Oct. 31, 2004 when he returned one 39 yards for a score against New England at Heinz Field.

The Steelers outscored their opponents 87-29 in the third quarter this year. They allowed Cleveland (Week 2), Cincinnati (Week 7), Indianapolis (Week 10) and Baltimore (Week 15) to each collect field goals in their respective games, while the Dallas Cowboys had 10 points in Week 14 at Heinz Field and Tennessee notched a touchdown in Week 16.

The Steelers were plus-three (+3) in 2007 and minus-eight (-8) in 2006.

Since 2001, the Steelers have, at minimum, reached the AFC Championship Game when finishing a regular-season with a plus-seven (+7) or better turnover margin.

Another First: Head Coach Mike Tomlin won his first playoff game in just his second season, which is the fastest for any coach in Steelers' history.

Bill Cowher won his first playoff game in his third season and Chuck Noll won his first postseason game in his fourth season.

Tomlin is also the youngest coach in NFL history to both coach in and win Super Bowl.

Few And Far Between: Head Coach Mike Tomlin became the first coach in Steelers history to win division titles in each of his first two seasons. In 2007, the Steelers captured the AFC North in his first season.

Tomlin became just the second head coach in team history to post a winning record in his first season with a 10-6 record in 2007.

No Sophomore Jinx: Head Coach Mike Tomlin broke the team's all-time record for winning percentage for a coach in his first two seasons.

Tomlin secured the record with a win over the Baltimore Ravens (Week 15).

Double-Digit Duty: Head Coach Mike Tomlin led the Steelers to a 12-4 record in 2008. He became the first coach in team history to win at least 10 games in each of his first two seasons after finishing his rookie season with a 10-6 record.

LeBeau returned to the Steelers for a second stint as the team's defensive leader prior to the 2004 season. Since his return, the Steelers defense has ranked at or near the top of most major statistical defensive categories.

Passing Perfection: QB Ben Roethlisberger, who earned his first trip to the Pro Bowl in 2007, has achieved a number of outstanding single-season accomplishments in his five-year career, including achieving a feat three times that is rarely done in the NFL.

Roethlisberger, who set the team's single-season mark for passer rating (104.1) in 2007, has had a perfect passer rating (158.3) three times in his career, tying him with QB Peyton Manning for the most in NFL history (minimum 10 attempts).

Roethlisberger most recently accomplished the feat as he finished 16-of-20 passing for 261 yards with three touchdowns and no interceptions in the Week 16 of the 2007 season during a win over the St. Louis Rams.

In 2007, Roethlisberger became the first player in Steelers history to record a passer rating of 100.0 or better for an entire season. In his five seasons, Roethlisberger has 29 games in which he has a rating of 100.0 or better in a game, including his most recent against the Cincinnati Bengals in Week 7. The Steelers are 29-2 when he posts a 100-plus passer rating.

Roethlisberger's 29 career 100-plus passer rating games rank second in team history behind Terry Bradshaw, who had 31 such games since the passer rating rule was implemented in 1973.

Roethlisberger became just the fifth different quarterback in Steelers' history to pass for over 3,000 yards in a single season. He joins Terry Bradshaw (twice), Kordell Stewart (twice), Tommy Maddox (once) and Neil O'Donnell (once) as quarterbacks in team history to achieve the feat.

Day Of Wreckoning Records: WR Hines Ward capped off the 2008 season by reaching several milestones.

In the regular-season finale against the Browns, Ward finished with six catches for 70 yards. His six catches gave him 800 for his career, the only Steeler receiver to post 800 career receptions.

Additionally, Ward finished the season with 81 catches for 1,043 yards (12.9 avg.). It marked the first time since 2004 that Ward had at least 80 receptions in a season and the fifth time overall in his career.

Ward is the team's all-time leader in receiving yards (9,780), receptions (800) and receiving touchdowns (72).

In 2007, Ward became the team's all-time leader in receiving yards in the Week 16 victory over the St. Louis Rams after finishing with six catches for 59 yards (9.8 avg.). He surpassed Hall of Famer John Stallworth, who finished his career with 8,723 receiving yards.

Additionally, Ward has 20 career 100-yard receiving games, which is second on the team's all-time list behind only Hall of Famer John Stallworth (25).

Top Dawg: WR Hines Ward is the only wide receiver in Steelers history to be voted to four Pro Bowls. Ward's 1,043 receiving yards in 2008 made him the first Steelers receiver to reach 1,000 yards five times during his career with the team. No other Steeler has more than three.

In 2002, Ward became the first receiver in Steelers history to catch 100 passes (112) in a season. He also became the first Steelers receiver with three consecutive games with at least 100 yards receiving. His 12 touchdown receptions in 2002 tied him with Louis Lipps (1985) and Buddy Dial (1961) for the highest single-season total in team history.

Ward was selected to the 2002-05 AFC Pro Bowl squads.

Ward has 430 career rushing yards to mark the most by a Steelers wide receiver in team history.

Ward scored his first career rushing touchdown in 2004 against Philadelphia.

Gimme The Rock: RB Willie Parker finished 2008 with 791 yards on 210 attempts (3.8 avg.) and rushed for over 100 yards four times.

In the regular-season finale against the Cleveland Browns, Parker had 116 yards rushing on 23 attempts (5.0 avg.) and scored his fifth rushing touchdown of the season. His 34-yard touchdown run was the longest run from scrimmage by the Steelers in 2008.

Parker rushed 25 times for 138 yards in the season-opening victory over the Texans. In 2007, he rushed a league-high 321 times for 1,316 yards (4.1 avg.) before suffering a season-ending injury in Week 16.

Parker Proving His Worth: RB Willie Parker led the Steelers in rushing for the fourth consecutive season in 2008, finishing with 791 yards. He joined Jerome Bettis, Franco Harris, John Henry Johnson and Fran Rogel as the only backs in team history to lead the team in rushing in four straight seasons.

Parker rushed for over 1,000 yards for the third consecutive season as he finished the 2007 season with 1,316 yards. He became just the third running back in team history to accomplish the feat (Jerome Bettis, Franco Harris).

In 2007, Parker had a league-leading eight 100-yard rushing games, which is fourth in team history.

Parker has 25 career 100-yard rushing games and the Steelers are 22-3 in those contests.

Parker finished the 2007 season just 179 yards shy of his career-high 1,494 yards before suffering a season-ending injury in Week 16. He finished the year ranked third in the AFC and sixth in the NFL.

Parker surpassed his previous best from the 2005 season (1,202) after rushing for over 100 yards in seven games in 2006. His 1,494 rushing yards in 2006 are the third-highest single-season total in team history, finishing just shy of reaching 1,500 for the year.

Home Sweet Home: RB Willie Parker has done some of his best work at Heinz Field throughout his career. Fifteen of his 25 100-yard rushing games have come at home.

Moore Making His Case: RB Mewelde Moore did an excellent job of filling in when RB Willie Parker was injured and often split time in the backfield when Parker played.

On the year, Moore was second on the team with 588 yards rushing on 140 carries (4.2 avg.) with five touchdowns and caught 40 passes for 320 yards (8.0 avg.) with one touchdown.

In four games replacing Parker as the starter in the backfield, Moore had 360 yards rushing on 80 carries (4.5 avg.) with five touchdowns and 16 catches for 89 yards (5.6 avg.) with one touchdown.

In Week 10 versus Indianapolis, Moore had two rushing touchdowns and 54 yards rushing and added six catches for 48 yards.

In Week 7 at Cincinnati, Moore finished with 120 yards rushing on 20 carries (6.0 avg.) with two rushing touchdowns and had five catches for 14 yards (2.8 avg.) with one touchdown, marking a career high in scoring. The 120 yards were his most since he had 122 at Green Bay on Nov. 21, 2005, while playing for the Minnesota Vikings, and it was his fifth career 100-yard rushing game.

Moore became the first Steelers running back other than Parker or Jerome Bettis to have over 100 yards rushing and two rushing touchdowns in a regular-season game. Bam Morris finished with 101 yards rushing and three touchdowns on Nov. 19, 1995 in a win at Cincinnati..

Moore made his first start in a Steelers uniform in Week 5 at Jacksonville and came up just shy of his fifth career 100-yard rushing performance as he finished with 99 yards on 17 carries (5.8 avg.). He also caught three passes for 17 yards in the Steelers' victory on Sunday Night Football.

In Week 4 versus Baltimore, Moore saw his first significant action of the season in the overtime victory. His biggest contribution was a 24-yard catch on a third-and-eight play in overtime that set up the game-winning field goal for Pittsburgh.

Holmes Heating Up: WR Santonio Holmes finished the 2008 regular season with a career-high 55 catches for 821 yards (14.9 avg.) with five touchdowns.

Holmes caught the game-winning, four-yard touchdown pass in the Week 15 victory over the Baltimore Ravens with less than a minute remaining that clinched the AFC North Division title for the Steelers. He finished that game with three catches for 21 yards against the Ravens.

Holmes led the Steelers with 942 yards (18.1 avg.) and eight touchdown receptions in 2007 despite missing three games.

Holmes' 942 yards receiving in 2007 were a new career high, surpassing his 2006 total of 824 yards. He had a career-high 133 yards receiving on four catches (33.3 avg.) in the Week 16 win over St. Louis, marking his third 100-yard receiving game of the season and fourth of his career. His performance was highlighted by a career-long 83-yard catch.

Deep Threat: WR Nate Washington averaged a team-best 15.8 yards per catch and had three touchdowns, all of which were longer than 45 yards.

On the year, Washington had 40 catches for 631 yards (15.8 avg.) with three touchdowns and had four receptions of over 25 yards.

Washington came up big in the Steelers' Week 15 victory at the Baltimore Ravens as he finished with five catches for 76 yards. He caught three passes for 49 yards on the game-winning drive against the Ravens.

In Week 14 versus the Cowboys, Washington finished with four catches for 58 yards. However, on the game-winning drive, he had three catches for 41 yards that set up the tying touchdown.

Washington hauled in a 48-yard touchdown at Jacksonville (Week 5), a 50-yard touchdown at Cincinnati (Week 7) and a 65-yard touchdown versus the New York Giants (Week 8).

Miller Time: TE Heath Miller, who missed two weeks with an ankle injury, has developed into one of the Steelers most potent offensive weapons. He had a career-best 48 catches for 514 yards (10.7 avg.) with three touchdowns in 2008.

Miller had a career-high eight catches for 69 yards (8.6 avg.) in Week 16 at Tennessee.

Miller has 21 career touchdowns, which is third on the team's all-time list for touchdowns by a tight end. Pittsburgh is 14-5 when Miller finds the end zone.

In Week 12 versus the Cincinnati Bengals, Miller returned to action after missing two games with an ankle injury and posted four receptions for 44 yards (11.0 avg.) with one touchdown, his second of the season.

In 2007, Miller was third on the team with 47 catches for 566 yards (12.0 avg.) and seven touchdowns, which were both career highs.

Miller's blocking ability separates him from many "receiving" tight ends.

* Steelers Record

Bringing The Wood: LB LaMarr Woodley had a career-high 11.5 sacks and 78 tackles (53 solo) in 2008, his first season as a starter. Woodley tallied at least one sack in eight of the 15 games he started and the Steelers were 7-1 when he posted a sack.

Despite missing Week 10 versus the Indianapolis Colts with a calf injury, he ranked ninth (tied) in the NFL in sacks with 11.5. Woodley ranked first (tied) in the NFL with four fumble recoveries for a defensive player.

PRO BOWL LINEBACKERS...

Pittsburgh has sent a total of 50 linebacker selections to the Pro Bowl since 1970, including LB James Harrison and LB James Farrior this year. The 50 selections are the most in the NFL since the merger in 1970.

Woodley made his first NFL start in the season-opening victory over the Houston Texans and did not disappoint. He finished with three tackles (all solo), one sack, one interception and one fumble recovery. His pick was his first career interception.

Woodley twice earned GMC Defensive Player of the Week honors for his efforts in 2008 (Weeks 1 and 7).

Fantastic Farrior: LB James Farrior, who earned his second trip to the Pro Bowl this year, signed a new five-year deal prior to the 2008 season. He responded by leading the team in tackles with 146 in 2008, the third-highest total in his career, and also had 3.5 sacks.

Farrior had a game-high 13 tackles (eight solo) in the Week 15 victory at Baltimore. He posted a sack and finished with a team-high 11 tackles in the Week 14 victory over the Dallas Cowboys. Farrior had 13 tackles and defensed three passes in the Week 9 victory at Washington while collecting a half-sack.

Farrior led the team with 111 tackles and had a career-high six sacks in 2007.

For his career, Farrior has 10 interceptions, including seven with Pittsburgh and three while playing for the Jets.

Timmons Time: LB Lawrence Timmons, the Steelers' No. 1 pick in the 2007 NFL Draft, was a major factor in the Steelers' Week 15 victory over the Baltimore Ravens.

Timmons finished with six tackles against the Ravens, including a 14-yard sack in the fourth quarter that knocked Baltimore out of field goal range.

In the regular-season finale against the Cleveland Browns, Timmons had a career-high 12 tackles (seven solo) after making his second career start in place of the injured LB James Harrison.

Timmons posted his first career interception in Week 13 versus the Patriots and returned it 89 yards to the one-yard line. The 89-yard interception return was the third-longest in team history and the longest since Jack Hinkle returned one 91 yards versus the New York Giants on Oct. 9, 1943. Timmons finished with five tackles against New England.

Timmons made his first career start in place of the injured LB LaMarr Woodley during Week 10 versus the Indianapolis Colts. He finished with six tackles (four solo).

Timmons, who saw action in base defensive packages and the nickel package, had 71 tackles on the year to go with his five sacks. He had a career-best two sacks in the Steelers' Week 7 victory at Cincinnati.

Timmons recorded his first career sack, while registering three tackles and one defensed pass in the Steelers' Week 4 win against the Baltimore Ravens.

Putting His Foote Down: LB Larry Foote had 86 tackles (56 solo) in 2008 to rank fifth on the team, including 12 in the Week 15 victory over the Baltimore Ravens.

In the Week 2 victory over the Cleveland Browns, Foote finished with nine tackles (six solo).

Foote put his best foot forward in Week 3 at Philadelphia as he finished with four tackles, 1.5 sacks and two QB pressures. It marked the first time in his career he had more than one sack in a game.

In 2007, Foote had 89 tackles along with three sacks and three forced fumbles as he was a main reason the Steelers defense ranked first in the NFL. His 89 tackles ranked third on the team.

LINEBACKER SACK NOTE...

Pittsburgh's linebackers combined for 38.5 sacks in 2008 (of the team's 51 total). The 38.5 sacks ranks second in NFL history for combined linebackers in one season. The 2008 Steelers' team ranks behind only the 2006 San Diego Chargers with 42.5 sacks combined in one year.

Man Of Troy: SS Troy Polamalu had one of the finest seasons of his career, posting a career-high seven interceptions among a number of big plays. He had an interception in a career-high four straight games (Weeks 12-15).

Polamlu's seven interceptions, which finished second (tied) in the NFL, were the most for the Steelers since Willie Williams had seven picks in 1995. He now has 17 career interceptions. The Steelers are 13-3 when Polamalu has an interception.

Polamalu was looking to become the first Steeler to lead the league in interceptions since Hall of Fame CB Mel Blount posted an NFL-best and team-record 11 picks in 1975.

Polamalu, who also had a three-game streak with an interception to start the season, had 87 tackles on the year, including 61 solo, to rank fourth on the team.

Polamalu, who signed a four-year extension with the team in the 2007 offseason, was selected to his fifth straight Pro Bowl this year.

Clark Return Is Key: S Ryan Clark finished the 2008 season with 113 tackles, including a season-high 12 in Week 16 at Tennessee, and eight passes defensed. His 113 tackles were a career high and ranked second on the team despite missing the Week 9 matchup against his former team, the Washington Redskins, with a shoulder injury, and the season finale versus Cleveland with a shoulder injury.

Clark had season-ending surgery in 2007 (after Week 7) at Denver, and the Steelers defense allowed an uncharacteristic number of big plays during his absence.

Carter Carries The Load: S Tyrone Carter had a career-high two interceptions in the regular-season finale against the Cleveland Browns.

Carter, who made his second start of the season in place of injured S Ryan Clark, had arguably the best game of his career, returning one interception 32 yards for his first career touchdown in the fourth quarter.

For the year, Carter finished with 17 tackles and three interceptions, which were second on the team.

Face Me Ike: CB Ike Taylor had a team-best 14 pass breakups in 2008 and ranked seventh on the team with 75 tackles (56 solo).

Taylor posted his first interception of the season against the Dallas Cowboys in Week 14. The interception set up the Steelers' first score of the game.

Taylor, who finished second on the team in 2007 with 90 tackles, posted six solo tackles in the Week 1 victory over the Houston Texans at Heinz Field.

Young At Heart: CB Deshea Townsend completed his 11th year in the NFL and continued to be a major factor in the Steelers defensive success.

Townsend had arguably the biggest play of his career in the Week 14 victory over the Dallas Cowboys. With the score tied at 13-13 with less than two minutes remaining, Townsend picked off a Tony Romo pass and returned it 25 yards for the go-ahead touchdown. It marked his third career interception return for a score. For his efforts, he was named GMC Sierra Defensive Player of the Week (Week 14).

Townsend missed four games earlier in the season and has started just four contests. His two interceptions were third (tied) on the team.

Gay Gearing Up: CB William Gay made four straight starts in 2008 and ranked second (tied) on the team with 11 pass breakups.

Gay notched his first career interception in the Week 15 victory over the Baltimore Ravens. He picked off a Joe Flacco pass in the end zone with less than 20 seconds remaining to seal the Steelers' victory.

Gay had 38 tackles on the year and posted nine special teams tackles in his first season of significant playing time.

Turning The Corner: CB Bryant McFadden returned to the starting lineup in the Week 15 victory at Baltimore and finished with five tackles. He finished with 54 tackles for the season.

McFadden had started five games in place of CB Deshea Townsend prior to suffering an arm injury in Week 7 at Cincinnati. He missed six weeks of action before returning in Week 14 against the Dallas Cowboys.

McFadden stepped up and posted an interception in two of those five games that he started. In Week 2 at Cleveland, he finished with five tackles and two passes defensed with an interception.

In addition to his Week 3 interception against Philadelphia, McFadden deflected a pass that led to an interception by S Troy Polamalu.

Age Is Just A Number: Pittsburgh's defensive line was as productive as ever despite an average age of over 30 years old.

DE Aaron Smith (32), DE Brett Keisel (30) and DT Casey Hampton (31), along with backups DE Travis Kirschke (34), DE Nick Eason (28), DT Chris Hoke (32) and DE Orpheus Roye (35), helped the Steelers rank second in the NFL in rushing defense and open gaps for their linebackers to make plays. The Steelers allowed just 80.3 rushing yards per game.

The defensive line combined for 11 of the Steelers' 51 sacks (Smith - 5, Eason - 1.5, Kirschke - 2, Hampton - 1, Keisel 1, Hoke - 0.5).

INDIVIDUAL SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

Chart Topper: K Jeff Reed owns the team's second-best all-time mark for career field goal percentage.

Reed is 162-of-196 (.8265) for his career in the regular season, which is second in team history. Former K Norm Johnson finished his career with the Steelers making 105-of-127 field goal attempts, a .8267 career field goal percentage.

Mr. Clutch: K Jeff Reed booted two game-winning field goals in 2008.

In the Week 11 victory over the San Diego Chargers, Reed booted a 32-yard field goal with 11 seconds remaining to give Pittsburgh the win. It was his seventh career regular-season game-winning field goal.

Earlier in the year, Reed had a game-winning 46-yard field goal in Week 4 to defeat the Baltimore Ravens in overtime.

Getting His Kicks: K Jeff Reed was 36-for-37 on PATs and 27-for-31 in FGs for a team-best 117 points. His 117 points in 2008 tied for the second-most in his career, matching his 2005 total of 117 points.

Reed's performance in 2008 was that much more impressive considering his adjustment to both a new holder and new long-snapper midway through the season. He set a career long when he booted a 53-yard field goal in Week 3 at Philadelphia. It marked the fourth-longest (tied) field goal in team history and the longest since Kris Brown hit a team-record-tying 55-yard field goal on Oct. 14, 2001 at Kansas City.

Reed began the 2008 season perfect as he was 5-for-5 in PATs and 1-for-1 in FGs in the win over the Texans in Week 1.

Reed was 23-for-25 (.920) in field goals in 2007, with his only misses being a 65-yard attempt at Denver in Week 7 and a 44-yard field goal on a rain-soaked Heinz Field versus Miami in Week 12. He was a perfect 44-for-44 in PATs for a team-high 113 points.

Moving On Up: K Jeff Reed moved into second place on the team's all-time scoring list during the 2008 regular-season finale against the Cleveland Browns.

Reed finished with seven points, giving him 733 for his career, which is second only to Gary Anderson (1,343). He has 162 field goals (second in team history) and 247 PATs during his seven-year career with the Steelers. He is just the fourth kicker in team history to boot at least 100 field goals in a career, joining Gary Anderson (309), Roy Gerela (146) and Norm Johnson (105), and just the third player in team history to reach 700 points (Anderson, Gerela).

Reed Right On the Road: K Jeff Reed had made 18 straight field goals on the road prior to missing a 40-yard attempt in Week 13 at New England. He has made 21 of his last 23 (.913) away from Heinz Field and 38 of his last 41 (.927) field goal attempts on the road.

Mr. Dependable: K Jeff Reed continues to be one of the most productive field goal kickers in the NFL. Reed's 122 field goals since the beginning of the 2004 season place him third among kickers who have kicked in at least one Pro Bowl since the beginning of the 2004 season.

Following is a list of the most field goals made since the beginning of the 2004 season among Reed and former Pro Bowl kickers:

• RB Gary Russell took over the role of the kick returner and averaged an impressive 23.2 yards per return, which was the highest on the team. Russell had 16 kickoff returns for 371 yards and accounted for the top four kickoff returns this season for the Steelers, including a long of 43 yards.

Preseason Game #1

Pittsburgh 16, Philadelphia 10
Aug. 8, 2008
Heinz Field (57,410)

PITTSBURGH — Pittsburgh won its preseason opener for the third time in four years as it defeated the visiting Philadelphia Eagles, 16-10, at Heinz Field on Aug. 8. The win was the Steelers' fifth in the past six preseason games.

The Steelers first-team offense looked solid as they took the opening kickoff 80 yards, capped off with a 19-yard touchdown strike from QB Ben Roethlisberger to WR Santonio Holmes to give Pittsburgh an early 7-0 advantage. On the drive, Roethlisberger was 2-for-2 for 38 yards as he also connected with WR Hines Ward for a 19-yard completion.

Philadelphia responded on the ensuing drive and trimmed the lead to 7-3 as K David Akers booted a 28-yard field goal with just over three minutes remaining in the first quarter.

The Eagles grabbed a 10-7 lead early in the second quarter as QB Donovan McNabb found FB Jason Davis for a three-yard score.

Pittsburgh tied the game at 10-10 later in the second quarter on a 20-yard field goal by K Jeff Reed. However, on the drive backup QB Charlie Batch suffered a fractured collarbone and was replaced by rookie QB Dennis Dixon.

After a scoreless third quarter Reed connected on a pair of field goals in the fourth quarter, including a 50-yader with 7:28 left in the game to cap the scoring for both teams.

The Steelers managed just 189 yards of total offense, but 80 of them came on the opening drive when the starters saw their only action. Philadelphia collected 271 yards of total offense in the game.

Rookie RB Rashard Mendenhall led the Steelers with 34 yards rushing on seven carries (4.9 avg.). RB Justin Vincent added nine carries for 28 yards (3.1 avg.).

Rookie WR Limas Sweed caught three passes for 23 yards to lead all Steelers.

LB James Farrior, LB Donovan Woods and DE Nick Eason all posted a sack for the Steelers.

Preseason Game #2

Buffalo 24, Pittsburgh 21
Aug. 14, 2008
Rogers Centre (48,434)

TORONTO — Playing their first preseason game in Canada since 1990, the Pittsburgh Steelers suffered a 24-21 setback to the host Buffalo Bills on Aug. 14 at the Rogers Centre. The loss dropped the Steelers to 1-1 in the preseason while the Bills improved to 1-1.

The Steelers came out on their first offensive series of the game and moved the ball to the Bills' 27-yard line before QB Ben Roethlisberger's pass was tipped and picked off by S Donte Whitner. Buffalo responded with a 10-play drive that ended with QB Trent Edwards finding TE Robert Royal in the end zone for a seven-yard score, giving it a 7-0 lead midway through the first quarter.

Buffalo upped the lead to 14-0 on its next possession as Edwards and Royal connected again, this time a 13-yard touchdown strike.

Pittsburgh's first-team offense got on the board on the ensuing drive as Roethlisberger engineered a five-play, 75-yard drive that ended with a 40-yard pass to WR Santonio Holmes for a touchdown.

The Steelers had a chance to cut the lead to 14-10 later in the half but a 42-yard field goal by K Jeff Reed sailed wide left.

After Buffalo took a 17-7 lead on its first drive of the second half, Pittsburgh again cut the lead to three points, 17-14, as rookie first-round draft pick RB Rashard Mendenhall scored from six yards out with 1:56 remaining in the third. However, Buffalo's CB Leodis McKelvin returned the kickoff 95 yards for a touchdown to stretch the Bills' lead to 24-14.

Rookie QB Dennis Dixon gave Pittsburgh hope as he scrambled around the right side with under five minutes to go in the game for a 47-yard score. He later tossed a hail mary pass as time expired that would have given the Steelers the victory, but Buffalo batted away the pass in the end zone.

Pittsburgh finished with 338 yards of total offense to the Bills' 263.

Roethlisberger had another solid game as he finished 9-for-11 for 142 yards with one touchdown and one interception (111.2 passer rating). Dixon was 6-for-15 for 79 yards with one rushing touchdown, while newly-acquired QB Byron Leftwich finished 5-for-11 for 41 yards.

Pittsburgh had three defensive sacks, including one each by LB Lawrence Timmons, LB James Harrison and DE Brett Keisel. Timmons led the Steelers with seven total tackles (four solo).

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers scored touchdowns on their first three offensive possessions, and an opportunistic defense turned two interceptions, five sacks and a forced fumble into a 38-17 season-opening victory over the Houston Texans on Sept. 7 at Heinz Field. It marked Pittsburgh's sixth straight season-opening victory, the longest in the NFL.

Game #2
Pittsburgh 10, Cleveland 6
Sept. 14, 2008
Cleveland Browns Stadium (73,048)

CLEVELAND — The Steelers jumped out to a 10-0 lead by the middle of the third quarter and held on down the stretch to defeat the Cleveland Browns 10-6 at Cleveland Browns Stadium on Sept. 14. Pittsburgh captured its 10th straight win over the Browns in the series, improving to 2-0 on the year with the victory while the Browns fell to 0-2.

Swirling rain and wind helped to keep both offenses in check, as neither team was able to put points on the board until midway through the second quarter. Steelers' CB Bryant McFadden recorded his first interception of the season when he picked off Cleveland's QB Derek Anderson at the Pittsburgh 30-yard line. The Steelers proceeded to march 50 yards in 12 plays with QB Ben Roethlisberger hooking up with WR Hines Ward for the third time this season on an 11-yard touchdown reception, giving the Steelers a 7-0 lead.

Cleveland appeared poised to tie the score at the end of the first half, driving all the way to the Pittsburgh 13-yard line. Steelers S Troy Polamalu ended that threat when he picked off Anderson to ensure a 7-0 Steelers lead at the break.

Pittsburgh built on their lead on their second possession of the third quarter when they drove 54 yards in five plays, with the big play being a 48-yard pass from Roethlisberger to WR Santonio Holmes. K Jeff Reed kicked a 48-yard field goal to put the Steelers up 10-0.

Cleveland answered Reed's field goal by marching 47 yards in 12 plays, as K Phil Dawson's 31-yard field goal cut Pittsburgh's advantage to 10-3. Dawson would add a 38-yard field goal with just under four minutes remaining in the fourth quarter to cut Cleveland's deficit to 10-6, but Pittsburgh held the Browns in check from there to secure the victory.

Roethlisberger finished the game 12-of-19 passing for 186 yards with one touchdown and a passer rating of 113.0. RB Willie Parker led the way on the ground with his second straight 100-yard rushing performance of the season (28-105, 3.8 avg.).

Ward finished with five catches for 59 yards (11.8 avg.) with one touchdown while Holmes also caught five passes for a team-leading 94 yards (18.8 avg.).

The Steelers held Cleveland to only 53 yards rushing on 25 carries (2.1 avg.), with Browns RB Jamal Lewis netting only 38 yards on 19 attempts (2.0 avg.). Pittsburgh's defense also kept Anderson in check as the Browns signal caller completed only 18-of-32 passes for 166 yards with two interceptions and a passer rating of 44.5.

DE Aaron Smith registered two sacks for Pittsburgh.

Game #3
Philadelphia 15, Pittsburgh 6
Sept. 21, 2008
Lincoln Financial Field (69,144)

PHILADELPHIA — The Steelers could not build upon their early momentum en route to a 15-6 loss on the road to the Philadelphia Eagles. Philadelphia improved to 2-1 with the victory while the Steelers suffered their first setback of the 2008 campaign as they fell to 2-1.

Philadelphia was driving deep into Pittsburgh territory on the first possession of the game when DE Orpheus Roye hit Eagles RB Tony Hunt, forcing a fumble at the Pittsburgh 20-yard line. The Steelers offense proceeded to march 61 yards in 12 plays and K Jeff Reed kicked a 37-yard field goal to give the Steelers the early 3-0 advantage.

Philadelphia answered right back on their ensuing drive by covering 85 yards in 13 plays when QB Donovan McNabb connected with RB Correll Buckhalter on a swing pass that Buckhalter converted into a 20-yard touchdown reception and a 7-3 Eagles advantage.

K David Akers kicked a 31-yard field goal on the Eagles' next offensive possession to increase Philadelphia's lead to 10-3 before the Steelers responded again following another takeaway. McFadden posted his second interception in as many weeks when he picked off McNabb, which led to Reed's second field goal, this time from a career-long 53 yards, to cut the Eagles lead to 10-6 at the half.

Pittsburgh appeared poised to take the lead back early in the second half when Steelers S Troy Polamalu recorded his third interception of the season when he picked off backup QB Kevin Kolb, who subbed briefly for one series, at the Eagles' 49-yard line, but Pittsburgh could not take advantage of the turnover.

The two teams then traded possessions for much of second half until Steelers QB Ben Roethlisberger was penalized for intentional grounding in the end zone, resulting in a safety for the Eagles, with eight minutes remaining in the fourth quarter. Akers would add his second 31-yard field goal of the afternoon late in the contest to give the Eagles the 15-6 victory.

The Steelers offense was held in check by a swarming Eagles defense. Roethlisberger finished the contest 13-of-25 for 131 yards while throwing his first interception of the season. RB Willie Parker was limited to just 20 yards on 13 carries (1.5 avg.), as the Steelers amassed only 180 yards of total offense.

Pittsburgh forced three turnovers and post three sacks, including LB Larry Foote (1.5), LB LaMarr Woodley (1.0) and DE Travis Kirschke (0.5).

Game #4
Pittsburgh 23, Baltimore 20 (OT)
Sept. 29, 2008
Heinz Field (64,038)

PITTSBURGH — K Jeff Reed booted a 46-yard game-winning field goal in overtime as Pittsburgh defeated the visiting Baltimore Ravens, 23-20, on Sept. 29 on Monday Night Football. The Steelers improved to 3-1 while the Ravens fell to 2-1.

Reed's 46-yard field goal was his third of the game (49, 19) and marked his seventh career game-winning field goal.

The Steelers' game-winning drive in overtime came after Pittsburgh's defense stopped the Ravens three-and-out on the first series. On the game-winning drive, backup RB Mewelde Moore caught a 24-yard pass from QB Ben Roethlisberger that set up the eventual game-winner. Moore was seeing every-down action after starting RB Rashard Mendenhall, who was filling in for the injured RB Willie Parker, and FB Carey Davis both left the game with injuries.

The Steelers struggled in the first half to put any drives together as they finished with just 46 yards of total offense in the first two quarters, finding themselves trailing 13-3 at the half.

However, Pittsburgh scored 14 points in 15 seconds in the third quarter to take a 17-13 lead. After Roethlisberger hit WR Santonio Holmes for a 38-yard touchdown, LB LaMarr Woodley picked up a fumble on the Ravens' first play from scrimmage and darted seven yards for a touchdown.

Reed's 19-yard field goal with 9:19 left in the fourth quarter made it 20-13, but Baltimore responded with a nine-play drive that ended with RB Le'Ron McClain running in from two yards out to eventually force overtime.

The Steelers limited the Ravens to just 97 yards of total offense in the second half and overtime. For the game, Baltimore had 243 yards of offense to Pittsburgh's 237.

Roethlisberger finished 14-of-24 for 191 yards passing with one touchdown and one interception. Mendenhall had 30 rushing yards on nine carries (3.3 avg.) before leaving with a shoulder injury.

LB James Harrison led the Steelers with 2.5 sacks, 10 tackles and a forced fumble. Woodley added eight tackles, 1.5 sacks and fumble return for a score.

Game #5
Pittsburgh 26, Jacksonville 21
Oct. 5, 2008
Jacksonville Municipal Stadium (65,908)

JACKSONVILLE — QB Ben Roethlisberger led the team on an 11-play, 80-yard drive that ended with an eight-yard touchdown pass to WR Hines Ward to secure the 26-21 victory on Oct. 5 on Sunday Night Football.

Roethlisberger directed the Steelers on the game-winning drive as he tossed his third touchdown pass of the game. The two-point conversion attempt failed but the Steelers defense hung on during the Jaguars' final offensive possession to preserve the 26-21 victory.

Jacksonville struck first when CB Rashean Mathis picked off a Roethlisberger pass and returned it 72 yards for a touchdown. The Steelers answered that right back on the ensuing possession as they drove 71 yards in 12 plays, as Roethlisberger threw the first of his three touchdown passes when he found TE Heath Miller for a one-yard touchdown reception.

Jacksonville then had their first offensive possession and Jaguars QB David Garrard drove his squad 74 yards in seven plays, with the key play being a 41-yard pass interference call against Steelers CB Ike Taylor which placed the ball at the one-yard line, setting up a one-yard touchdown run by RB Maurice Jones-Drew.

The Steelers dominated the second quarter as K Jeff Reed nailed the first of his two field goals when he connected from 38 yards away to cut the Jaguars lead to 14-10. Less than three minutes after Reed's field goal, Roethlisberger threw his second touchdown pass, this one a 48-yard strike down the left sideline to a wide open WR Nate Washington for a 17-14 lead. Reed's second field goal of the quarter, a 23-yarder with only 45 seconds remaining in the half, gave the Steelers a 20-14 lead at the half.

After a scoreless third quarter, Jacksonville took the lead back less than a minute into the fourth quarter when Garrard hit TE Mercedes Lewis on a 24-yard touchdown strike to give Jacksonville the 21-20 advantage.

Roethlisberger had his best outing of 2008, completing 26-of-41 passes for 309 yards with a season-high three touchdowns and one interception for a passer rating of 100.6. RB Mewelde Moore, making his first start as a member of the Steelers, finished with 99 yards rushing on 17 attempts (5.8 avg.). Ward led all receivers with seven receptions for 90 yards (12.9 avg.) and the game-winning score.

The Steelers held the Jaguars to only 213 yards of total offense, with just 38 of those yards coming on the ground. Pittsburgh had three sacks (LB LaMarr Woodley - 2; LB James Harrison - 1).

Oct. 19, 2008
Paul Brown Stadium (65,860)

CINCINNATI — The Steelers scorched the Cincinnati Bengals for 21 fourth-quarter points en route to a 38-10 victory on Oct. 19. The win improved the Steelers' record to 5-1 while Cincinnati fell to 0-7.

The Steelers jumped out to a 7-0 lead on their first drive of the game as QB Ben Roethlisberger engineered a 75-yard drive to open the game and found RB Mewelde Moore for a two-yard touchdown pass.

K Jeff Reed kicked a 21-yard field goal with 42 seconds remaining in the first quarter to stretch the lead to 10-0. However, Cincinnati came back with a 92-yard drive before halftime to make it 10-7.

Following a Bengals punt, the Steelers added to their lead on their first possession of the second half when Moore darted in from 13 yards out, his second touchdown of the game, to give the Steelers a 17-7 lead. Bengals K Dave Rayner hit a 26-yard field goal late in the third quarter to draw the Bengals to within 17-10 heading into the fourth quarter.

Pittsburgh dominated the fourth quarter, scoring 21 unanswered points to secure the victory. WR Nate Washington started the scoring when he hauled in a 50-yard touchdown reception from Roethlisberger to put the Steelers up 24-10. Exactly three minutes after that score, Moore scored his third touchdown of the day when he bounced in off of the right side for a two-yard touchdown run. Backup QB Byron Leftwich tossed a late 16-yard touchdown to WR Hines Ward for the games' final points.

Roethlisberger had another superb performance in his home state, completing 17-of-28 passes for 216 yards with two touchdowns and a passer rating of 108.6, his fourth 100-plus passer rating of the season. Moore recorded his fifth career 100-yard rushing performance, and his first as a Steeler, as he finished 120 yards on 20 carries (6.0 avg.) with two touchdowns. He also tied for the team lead with five receptions for 14 yards (1.8 avg.) and another touchdown. Holmes also had five receptions for 89 yards (17.8 avg.).

Defensively, the Steelers applied pressure to Bengals' quarterbacks all day long. They finished with a season-high seven sacks as LB James Harrison and LB LaMarr Woodley again led the way with two sacks apiece. LB Lawrence Timmons also had two sacks, his first career multiple-sack performance. LB James Farrior had the other Steelers' sack. Woodley also created the games only turnover, forcing and recovering a Ryan Fitzpatrick fumble late in the fourth quarter.

Game #7
New York Giants 21, Pittsburgh 14
Oct. 26, 2008
Heinz Field (64,991)

PITTSBURGH — The New York Giants scored the game's final 12 points, all in the fourth quarter, to complete a 21-14 comeback victory over the Steelers at Heinz Field. Pittsburgh fell to 5-2 with the loss, while the Giants improved to 6-1.

Pittsburgh struck first as it marched 60 yards in four plays after forcing the Giants to a three-and-out on New York's opening drive of the game. RB Mewelde Moore, who accounted for 38 of those 60 yards, bounced 32 yards around right end for the touchdown to give the Steelers a 7-0 advantage.

New York was able to chip away at its deficit as Pittsburgh struggled to move the ball throughout the rest of the first half. Giants K John Carney kicked three field goals, a 26-yarder in the first quarter; 35 and 25-yarders in the second quarter; to give the Giants a 9-7 halftime lead.

QB Ben Roethlisberger erased that lead five minutes into the second half when he connected with WR Nate Washington on a season-long 65-yard touchdown strike to allow the Steelers to reclaim a 14-9 lead. Washington's touchdown marked the third consecutive game that he and Roethlisberger combined for a score.

New York again cut into the Steelers' lead when Carney made his fourth field goal of the afternoon from 24 yards away with 8:18 left in the fourth quarter. One minute and 30 seconds later the Giants tied the game at 14-14 when Steelers LB James Harrison, filling in for the injured LS Greg Warren, snapped the ball over P Mitch Berger's head and out of the end zone for a safety.

Given a short field after the ensuing free kick, New York went 62 yards in 12 plays, including a key 25-yard completion from QB Eli Manning to WR Steve Smith on third-and-seven from midfield, to take a 21-14 lead on Manning's two-yard touchdown toss to TE Kevin Boss for the game's final points.

Roethlisberger was 13-of-29 for 189 yards with one touchdown and four interceptions. Moore led the Steelers for the third consecutive game with 84 yards on 19 attempts (4.4 avg.) with one touchdown.

The Steelers limited the Giants' league-leading rushing attack to just 83 yards on the ground. New York entered the game averaging nearly 170 yards per game.

Game #8
Pittsburgh 23, Washington 6
Nov. 3, 2008
FedEx Field (90,512)

LANDOVER, Md. — Pittsburgh overcame a sluggish start and scored 23 unanswered points on its way to a convincing 23-6 victory over the Washington Redskins at FedEx Field on Monday Night Football. The Steelers improved to 6-2 on the year while the Redskins fell to 6-3.

The Steelers fell behind 6-0 less than four minutes into the game after a failed onside kick to open the game was recovered by Washington and an interception on the following drive led to a pair of field goals by K Shaun Suisham.

However, the Redskins were unable to score again as the Steelers defense clamped down on the NFL's top rusher, RB Clinton Portis. Portis was held to 51 yards rushing on 13 carries (3.9 avg.).

As Pittsburgh's defense dominated one side of the ball, the Steelers' offense came alive and scored all 10 points in the second quarter to take a 10-6 halftime lead. A 35-yard field goal by K Jeff Reed put Pittsburgh on the board at the 8:09 mark and a one-yard touchdown run by QB Ben Roethlisberger with 32 seconds left in the half gave the Steelers a four-point lead at intermission.

Roethlisberger, who injured his shoulder prior to the half, was replaced in the second half by QB Byron Leftwich. Leftwich led the Steelers on a scoring drive to open the third quarter as they marched 72 yards on eight plays that culminated with a one-yard touchdown run by RB Willie Parker, stretching the lead to 16-6 after a missed PAT by Reed. On the drive, Leftwich connected with WR Nate Washington for a 50-yard pass play.

The Steelers capped the scoring with a five-yard touchdown pass by Leftwich to WR Santonio Holmes in the fourth quarter. It was Holmes' second touchdown of the season.

On three separate drives, Pittsburgh's defense kept the Redskins off the scoreboard despite three trips to the red zone. For the night, the Steelers limited Washington to 221 yards of total offense, including just 60 yards on the ground. The Steelers collected a season-high (tied) seven sacks, including two by LB LaMarr Woodley.

In relief of Roethlisberger, Leftwich finished 7-for-10 for 129 yards passing with one touchdown (145.8 passer rating). Parker, in his first game back after missing the previous four games, finished with a game-high 70 yards rushing on 21 attempts (3.3 avg.) with one touchdown.

Game #9
Indianapolis 24, Pittsburgh 20
Nov. 9, 2008
Heinz Field (64,043)

PITTSBURGH — Indianapolis QB Peyton Manning hit RB Dominic Rhodes for a 17-yard touchdown reception with just over three minutes remaining in the fourth quarter to give the Colts a 24-20 come-from-behind victory over Pittsburgh at Heinz Field. The Steelers fell to 6-3 with the loss while the Colts improved to 5-4, marking their first win in Pittsburgh since 1968.

The Steelers jumped on the board first, taking the opening kickoff 62 yards in 10 plays as RB Mewelde Moore scored the first of his two rushing touchdowns when he scored from one-yard out to give Pittsburgh the 7-0 advantage.

Indianapolis answered right back when Manning's deep pass down the left sideline was tipped by Steelers CB Ike Taylor, but caught by WR Reggie Wayne for a 65-yard touchdown reception to tie the game at 7-7.

After Moore scored his second touchdown on another one-yard plunge early in the second quarter and K Jeff Reed nailed a 42-yard field goal near the end of the half, it appeared that the Steelers would take a 10-point lead into the half. With time running out, Colts DB Keiwan Ratliff intercepted Steelers QB Ben Roethlisberger deep in Steelers' territory, setting up a two-yard touchdown strike from Manning to TE Dallas Clark to cut the Steelers halftime lead to 17-14.

Indianapolis tied the score with 8:14 to play in the third quarter when K Adam Vinatieri converted a 36-yard field goal to knot the game at 17-17.

Pittsburgh regained the lead midway through the fourth quarter when Reed hit his second field goal of the contest, this time from 24 yards away, to give the Steelers a 20-17 advantage. However, the Steelers were stopped short on three tries inside the five-yard line prior to Reed's field goal.

After Roethlisberger threw his second interception of the game, this time to Colts DB Tim Jennings, Manning found Rhodes for his third touchdown pass of the game. DB Melvin Bullitt intercepted Roethlisberger's last-ditch attempt in the end zone as time expired to secure the 24-20 victory for the Colts.

Roethlisberger finished 29-of-41 for 280 yards with three interceptions. WR Hines Ward finished with eight receptions for 112 yards (14.0 avg.). It marked his 17th career 100-yard receiving game, second-best in team history.

Game #10
Pittsburgh 11, San Diego 10
Nov. 16, 2008
Heinz Field (62,051)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers gave up a fourth quarter lead for the third consecutive home game, but unlike the previous two, they were able to rally in the game's final minutes and secure an 11-10 victory over the San Diego Chargers on a 32-yard field goal by K Jeff Reed with 11 seconds remaining in regulation. Pittsburgh improved to 7-3 on the season, and a perfect 13-0 all-time in the regular-season against the Chargers in Pittsburgh. The Chargers fell to 4-6.

San Diego started the scoring after Reed missed a 51-yard field goal, his first miss of 2008, when they took over at their own 41-yard line and marched 59 yards in six plays, capped by a three-yard touchdown run by RB LaDainian Tomlinson, to make it 7-0 Chargers.

Pittsburgh pinned San Diego deep in their own territory early in the second quarter, and LB James Harrison sacked Chargers QB Philip Rivers in the end zone, at the same time forcing a fumble which was recovered by Chargers OT Marcus McNeill, who was subsequently tackled by Harrison for the safety. A 21-yard field goal by Reed as time expired in the half cut the San Diego halftime lead to 7-5.

The Steelers took their first lead of the game when they took the opening possession of the second half and drove 54 yards in 14 plays, with Reed making his second field goal of the evening, this time from 41 yards away, giving the Steelers an 8-7 advantage.

The score stayed that way until San Diego marched down the field midway through the fourth quarter and reclaimed the lead when K Nate Kaeding nailed a 22-yard field goal to put the Chargers back up by a score of 10-8.

After a penalty on the ensuing kickoff trapped Pittsburgh deep inside their own territory, QB Ben Roethlisberger led his squad on a 13-play, 73 yard drive down to the Chargers 14-yard line, where Reed's third field goal gave the Steelers an 11-10 victory. Roethlisberger was 6-for-6 for 62 yards passing on the game-winning drive, his 15th career regular-season come-from-behind fourth-quarter victory.

Roethlisberger had one of his strongest performances of 2008 by finishing 31-of-41 for 308 yards, his sixth career 300-yard passing peformance.

WR Hines Ward established season highs with 11 receptions for 124 yards (11.3 avg.), his second consecutive 100-yard receiving effort. RB Willie Parker returned from a shoulder injury to rush 25 times for 115 yards (4.6 avg.), his third 100-yard rushing performance in five starts.

DE Brett Keisel and LB James Harrison recorded the Steelers' two sacks.

Game #11
Pittsburgh 27, Cincinnati 10
Nov. 20, 2008
Heinz Field (59,854)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers reeled off 20 consecutive points after falling behind early to the Cincinnati Bengals en route to a 27-10 victory at Heinz Field on Nov. 20. It marked the fifth consecutive time that Pittsburgh has defeated Cincinnati, and improved the Steelers record to 8-3.

Cincinnati momentarily grabbed an early lead when QB Ryan Fitzpatrick found WR Glenn Holt on a crossing pattern over the middle for a 10-yard touchdown pass and a 7-0 Bengals lead with 3:08 remaining in the first quarter.

The Steelers responded with a touchdown of their own less than five minutes into the second quarter when QB Ben Roethlisberger threw a three-yard touchdown strike to TE Heath Miller, who was back in the lineup for the first time since missing two consecutive games with an ankle injury. K Jeff Reed's 37-yard field goal with time winding down in the half gave Pittsburgh the lead for good at 10-7.

The Steelers built on their lead on the opening possession of the third quarter when Reed's 38-yard field goal upped the Pittsburgh lead to 13-7. RB Gary Russell stretched the lead to 20-7 with 16 seconds remaining in the third quarter when he ran around right end for a two-yard touchdown run, the first touchdown of his NFL career.

Cincinnati cut the deficit in half when K Shayne Graham capped an 11 play, 37-yard drive with a 26-yard field goal with 6:47 remaining in regulation. Pittsburgh answered that score as Roethlisberger completed a 73-yard drive by diving into the end zone from eight yards out with 2:15 left to play to make the score 27-10.

The Bengals tried putting together one final desperation drive, advancing to the Pittsburgh 15-yard line before Steelers' S Troy Polamalu ended that threat by recording his team-leading fifth interception of the season to put the finishing touches on a second consecutive victory.

Roethlisberger had his second straight strong performance, completing 17-of-30 (56.7 pct.) passes for 243 yards with one touchdown and a passer rating of 94.2 while rushing for one touchdown.

WR Santonio Holmes led the team with five receptions for 84 yards (16.8 avg.), while RB Mewelde Moore paced the ground game with 56 yards on 15 attempts (3.7 avg.).

LB LaMarr Woodley posted the Steelers only sack of the evening as Pittsburgh limited the Bengals to only 208 yards of total offense, including 43 on the ground.

Gillette Stadium (68,756)

FOXBOROUGH, Mass. — The Steelers maintained a one-game lead over the Baltimore Ravens in the battle for the AFC North division crown by defeating the New England Patriots 33-10 at Gillette Stadium. Pittsburgh used a 13-point third quarter to turn a 10-10 contest into a victory that improved the Steelers overall record to 9-3.

The third quarter belonged to the Steelers as Roethlisberger found WR Hines Ward for an 11-yard touchdown reception sandwiched around 25 and 20-yard field goals by Reed to take a 23-10 lead into the fourth.

New England was driving into Pittsburgh territory when S Troy Polamalu established a career high by recording his sixth interception of the season, returning it 23 yards to the Pittsburgh 34-yard line. Reed's third field goal of the day, this time from 45 yards, made the score 26-10 Steelers.

Game #13
Pittsburgh 20, Dallas 13
Dec. 7, 2008
Heinz Field (60,594)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers stunned the visiting Dallas Cowboys by scoring 17 points in the final 7:15 of regulation to turn a 13-3 deficit into a 20-13 victory at Heinz Field. Pittsburgh improved to 10-3 with the victory and remained one game ahead of the Baltimore Ravens in the AFC North Division.

Scoring was at a premium in the first half as neither offense was able to get on track against two of the NFL's better defenses. Pittsburgh started the scoring with a 24-yard field goal by K Jeff Reed but Dallas answered with a 44-yard field goal by K Nick Folk as time expired in the second quarter to tie the game at 3-3 heading into the intermission.

Dallas struck first after the break when QB Tony Romo marched his team 67 yards in eight plays to take a 10-3 lead when he hit WR Terrell Owens over the middle for a 12-yard touchdown reception. That marked the first time this season that the Steelers defense gave up a touchdown on the opening drive of the second half. Romo and the Cowboys stretched that lead to 13-3 on their next possession when Folk connected from 33 yards away to make the score 13-3 in favor of the Cowboys.

The Steelers began their comeback when Reed nailed a 41-yard field goal with 7:15 to play to get the Steelers to within seven points. QB Ben Roethlisberger was able to tie the game at 13 on the Steelers next possession when he engineered an eight play, 67-yard drive of his own that culminated with a six-yard touchdown strike from Roethlisberger to TE Heath Miller.

Overtime appeared imminent when CB Deshea Townsend capped the comeback for the Steelers. Townsend intercepted a Romo pass intended for TE Jason Witten and took it 25-yards down the left sideline into the end zone for an improbable 20-13 victory for the Steelers.

Roethlisberger finished 17-of-33 passing for 204 yards with one touchdown for a passer rating of 80.9. WR Nate Washington led the Steelers with four receptions for 58 yards (14.5 avg.) while RB Mewelde Moore also had four catches for 36 yards (9.0 avg.).

LB James Harrison tied a team record by recording his 15th sack of the season. DE Travis Kirschke and LB James Farrior also registered sacks. SS Troy Polamalu had his league-leading 7th interception of the season and CB Ike Taylor added his first interception of the season.

Game #14
Pittsburgh 13, Baltimore 9
Dec. 14, 2008
M&T Bank Stadium (71,502)

BALTIMORE — The Steelers came back from a fourth-quarter deficit for the second consecutive week by scoring 10 points in the final frame to stretch their winning streak to five games with a 13-9 victory over the Baltimore Ravens at M&T Bank Stadium. Pittsburgh clinched their second straight AFC North Division title.

After a scoreless first quarter, Baltimore struck first following a 46-yard punt return by Ravens S Jim Leonhard. QB Joe Flacco led the Ravens to the Pittsburgh 10-yard line before the drive stalled, and K Matt Stover came on to hit a 28-yard field goal to give Baltimore a 3-0 advantage.

Pittsburgh responded with a field goal on the ensuing possession. QB Ben Roethlisberger drove the Steelers deep into Ravens' territory, but this time it was Baltimore stopping Pittsburgh inside the red zone, and K Jeff Reed came on to tie the score at 3-3 with a 31-yard field goal.

Baltimore regained the lead when Stover hit a 26-yard field goal with 52 seconds remaining in the first half to help Baltimore regain the lead 6-3. The Ravens upped their lead to 9-3 midway through the third quarter when Stover nailed his third field goal, another 28-yard boot, following an S Ed Reed recovery of a WR Santonio Holmes fumble at the Pittsburgh 16-yard line.

Pittsburgh cut into Baltimore's advantage just over five minutes into the fourth quarter as Reed hit from 30 yards away to make it 9-6 Ravens.

That lead looked like it was going to hold up when the Ravens pinned the Steelers at their own eight-yard line with 3:36 remaining in regulation. But Roethlisberger drove the Steelers 92 yards in 12 plays, culminated by Roethlisberger throwing a four-yard scoring strike to Holmes with less than one minute remaining. CB William Gay picked off a Flacco pass intended for WR Derrick Mason, and the Steelers secured their sixth road win of the season.

Roethlisberger completed 22-of-40 passes for 246 yards with one touchdown for a passer rating of 81.9. WR Hines Ward caught eight passes for 107 yards (13.4 avg.).

Defensively, the Steelers gave up only 202 yards to the Ravens, including 90 net yards passing. DE Aaron Smith and LB Lawrence Timmons had the Steelers' sacks. S Ryan Clark had the Steelers other interception.

Game #15
Tennessee 31, Pittsburgh 14
Dec. 21, 2008
LP Field (69,143)

NASHVILLE — Tennessee struck both early and late, erasing a 14-10 third quarter deficit to defeat the Steelers 31-14. The loss ended Pittsburgh's winning streak at five games. Pittsburgh did clinch the second seed in the AFC playoffs, and the accompanying first-round bye that goes with it.

Tennessee scored 10 points within the first 3:01 of the second quarter to jump out to a 10-0 advantage. Titans K Rob Bironas hit a 42-yard field goal and QB Kerry Collins found WR Justin Gage deep over the middle for a 34-yard touchdown reception.

Pittsburgh answered the Gage score by taking the ensuing kickoff 80 yards in 10 plays, with QB Ben Roethlisberger finding WR Santonio Holmes down the right sideline for a 31-yard touchdown reception, Roethlisberger's 100th career scoring toss. K Jeff Reed had a chance to send the game into the half all-squared up, but he missed a 33-yard field goal attempt wide to the left.

The Steelers would take their only lead of the afternoon on their second possession of the third quarter when Roethlisberger hit WR Hines Ward on a 21-yard scoring play to make it 14-10.

Tennessee regained the lead on their following possession, as RB Chris Johnson took a pitch on fourth-and-one and went 21 yards untouched to allow the Titans to retake a 17-14 lead. RB LenDale White stretched that lead to 10 when he plunged one-yard for a score on the first play of the fourth quarter.

Titans S Michael Griffin finished the scoring when he recorded his second interception of the day, and went 83 yards for the score, and a 31-14 final.

Roethlisberger threw for a season-high 329 passing yards on 25-of-39 (64.1 pct) attempts with two touchdowns and two interceptions. Ward finished with his second straight 100-yard receiving performance by catching seven passes for 109 yards (15.6 avg.) with one touchdown. TE Heath Miller had a career-high eight receptions for 69 yards (8.6 avg.).

Defensively, LB James Harrison broke LB Mike Merriweather's team record for sacks in a season when he dropped Collins in the third quarter for a 10-yard loss, giving him 16 on the season.

Game #16
Pittsburgh 31, Cleveland 0
Dec. 28, 2008
Heinz Field (63,553)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers placed an exclamation point on one of the finest defensive campaigns in NFL history by recording their first shutout of the season in a 31-0 blanking of the Cleveland Browns. Pittsburgh finished the regular season with a 12-4 mark, the most wins they have posted in a season since going 15-1 in 2004.

The emphatic victory did not come without a price for Pittsburgh. QB Ben Roethlisberger had to be carted off the field late in the second quarter with what was later diagnosed as a concussion. Backup QB Byron Leftwich led the Steelers on three scoring drives in his place.

RB Willie Parker got things started with just over four minutes remaining in a scoreless first half when he broke an off-tackle run 34 yards up the right sideline for his fifth rushing touchdown of the season and a 7-0 Steelers' advantage. Leftwich scrambled in for a score with 32 seconds remaining in the half for a 14-0 Pittsburgh lead after 30 minutes.

K Jeff Reed scored the only points of the third quarter when he connected on a 22-yard field goal. RB Gary Russell put the game out of reach with his three-yard touchdown plunge with 9:41 remaining in the final frame. S Tyrone Carter's 32-yard interception return of a deflected pass proved to be the final points.

Parker recorded his 25th 100-yard rushing performance after carrying 23 times for 116 yards (5.0 avg.) with one touchdown. WR Hines Ward led the team with six receptions for 70 yards (11.7 avg.). He also surpassed 1,000 receiving yards for the fifth time in his career, while his final reception of the contest gave him 800 for his career.

Roethlisberger completed 9-of-14 passes (64.3 pct.) for 110 yards with one interception before leaving. Leftwich completed 7-of-12 passes (58.3 pct.) for 80 yards and had one rushing touchdown.

Defensively, Carter had his first career two-interception performance, returning his two picks for a total of 50 yards, including his first-ever interception return for a touchdown. The Steelers posted three sacks on the afternoon, with CB Bryant McFadden and LB Andre Frazier each recording one, while DE Travis Kirschke and DT Chris Hoke shared the other.

Pittsburgh held the Browns to only 126 total yards of offense, with just 20 of those yards coming through the air. Browns QB Bruce Gradkowski finished the day 5-of-16 for 18 yards with two interceptions and a quarterback rating of 1.0.

AFC Championship Game

Pittsburgh 23, Baltimore 14
Jan. 18, 2009
Heinz Field (65,350)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers will have a chance to become the first NFL franchise to win six Vince Lombardi Trophies when they face the Arizona Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII on February 1. Pittsburgh earned their second trip to the Super Bowl in four seasons by defeating the Baltimore Ravens 23-14 in the AFC Championship Game at Heinz Field.

Pittsburgh struck first following the opening kickoff, covering 50 yards in seven plays, the key play being a 45-yard pass from QB Ben Roethlisberger to WR Hines Ward. K Jeff Reed connected from 34 yards out to make it 3-0 in favor of Pittsburgh.

Reed would increase the Pittsburgh lead to 6-0 when he nailed his second field goal, this time a 42-yarder, following an interception by Steelers' CB Deshea Townsend.

The Steelers faced a third-and-nine situation from their own 35-yard line barely a minute into the second quarter when Roethlisberger and WR Santonio Holmes teamed up on a 65-yard scoring strike that put the Steelers ahead 13-0.

Baltimore got on the scoreboard with 2:40 remaining in the first half when RB Willis McGahee ran into the end zone from three yards out to cut the Pittsburgh lead to 13-7.

Reed converted his third field goal of the afternoon, a 46-yarder, with 3:38 left to play in the third quarter to increase the Steelers' lead to 16-7. McGahee's one-yard run with 9:29 to play in regulation allowed Baltimore to creep to within two points of the lead, 16-14.

Steelers' S Troy Polamalu ended any thoughts Baltimore had of completing the comeback when he intercepted a QB Joe Flacco pass and took it 40 yard into the end zone to clinch a 23-14 Steelers' victory.

Roethlisberger led the Steelers offensively, completing 16-of-33 passes for 255 yards with one touchdown for a passer rating of 84.8. RB Willie Parker rushed 24 times for 47 yards (2.0 avg.). Holmes caught two passes for 70 yards (35.0 avg.) and one touchdown.

Defensively, the Steelers sacked Flacco three times, including two by LB LaMarr Woodley, his third consecutive postseason game with two-sacks, and one by DE Aaron Smith. Along with Polamalu and Townsend, S Tyrone Carter had the Steelers' other interception. S Ryan Clark forced a fumble near the end of regulation which was recovered by LB Lawrence Timmons.

Super Bowl XLIII

Pittsburgh 27, Arizona 23
Feb. 1, 2009
Raymond James Stadium (70,774)

TAMPA — Trailing by three points with only 2:30 left in the fourth quarter, QB Ben Roethlisberger led the Steelers on an eight -play, 78-yard scoring drive, punctuated by a six-yard touchdown pass to WR Santonio Holmes to clinch their NFL-record sixth Lombardi Trophy with a 27-23 victory over the Arizona Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII.

Pittsburgh, which led most of the evening, struck first after Arizona deferred the opening kick. K Jeff Reed booted an 18-yard field goal on the opening drive to make it 3-0.

RB Gary Russell increased that lead to 10-0 when he plunged in from one-yard out early in the second quarter. Arizona answered that score as QB Kurt Warner hit TE Ben Patrick in the back of the end zone on a one-yard scoring strike to cut the Pittsburgh lead to 10-7.

Arizona appeared as if they were going to take their first lead late in the first half, but LB James Harrison intercepted Warner at the goal-line, raced 100 yards and dove into the end zone with two Cardinals on his back for the longest play in Super Bowl history, and a 17-7 advantage at the half.

A 21-yard field goal by Reed in the third quarter upped the lead to 20-7.

Arizona got back onto the scoreboard midway through the fourth quarter as Warner tossed another one-yard score, this time to WR Larry Fitzgerald, cutting the Steelers' lead to 20-14. A costly holding penalty in the end zone against Steelers' C Justin Hartwig gave the Cardinals a safety, further decreasing the Steelers' advantage to 20-16.

On the second play following the ensuing free kick, Warner found Fitzgerald on a 64-yard scoring strike through the middle of the Steelers' defense to give Arizona its first lead of the night, 23-20.

The Steelers were backed up to their own 12-yard line on the next drive, but Roethlisberger promptly completed four-of-six passes, three to Holmes, including a 40-yarder that moved the ball to the Arizona six. On second-and-goal, Roethlisberger threaded a perfect pass through three defenders and Holmes kept his toes in bounds for a six-yard touchdown reception and a 27-23 Steelers' lead with 35 seconds left.

Arizona had one more chance, but LB LaMarr Woodley sacked Warner, forcing a fumble to essentially end the game.

Holmes was named the game's MVP after catching nine passes for 131 yards (14.6 avg.) with one touchdown. Roethlisberger finished 21-of-30 for 256 yards with one touchdown and one interception.

Defensively, Woodley recorded both Steelers' sacks, giving him two sacks in each of his four postseason games, an NFL record.

1947 NFL Divisional Game
Philadelphia 21, Pittsburgh 0
December 21, 1947

PHILADELPHIA — The Eagles of coach Earle (Greasy) Neale were on the rise, destined to play the next three NFL title games, whereas Jock Sutherland's Steelers—the last of the Single-Wing offenses to make the playoffs—would have only one winning season in the next decade and that is how each played.

The Eagles capitalized early on a Pittsburgh error. Pete Pihos blocked a punt by Bob Cifers, and the Eagles gained possession at the Steelers' 14. Two plays later, Tommy Thompson threw a 15-yard touchdown pass to Steve Van Buren. The next period, Thompson went to the air again and found Jack Ferrante for 28 yards and a score that made it 14-0.

In the third quarter, the punting game again got the Steelers into trouble. Cifers outkicked his coverage and Bosh Pritchard wound his way through the Pittsburgh defense, going 79 yards for the final score.

Going into the game the Steelers were torn by controversy. The players demanded an extra paycheck for the playoff. Although they got their money, they outraged their coach Jock Sutherland, who proceeded to hold his pre-game practices outdoors in the snow and ice.

1962 Playoff Bowl
Detroit 17, Pittsburgh 10
January 6, 1963

MIAMI — The Steelers and Lions met in the third game of what was known as the Playoff Bowl. From 1960-66, the Playoff Bowl was played in Miami, Fla., consisting of the runners-up in each division. Detroit won its third consecutive Playoff Bowl, a 17-10 victory over the Steelers.

In what was a very physical game, the Steelers lost three key starters throughout the game. Halfback Willie Daniel sustained a concussion and a broken jaw, eventual Hall-of-Fame fullback John Henry Johnson left the game with a concussion, and tackle Dan James fractured his leg.

The Lions had the only scoring opportunity of the first quarter, however, a Wayne Walker 27-yard field goal attempt was wide left. He had a second chance in the second quarter and connected to give the Lions a 3-0 lead. The Steelers answered with a five-yard touchdown run by Dick Hoak, giving them a 7-3 lead. Detroit scored on their following drive thanks to a 20-yard pass from Milt Plum to Ken Webb, to give the Lions a 10-7 lead at halftime.

The Steelers tied the game halfway through the third quarter when Lou Michaels kicked a 40-yard field goal.

Detroit clinched the game with an 80-yard, four-play drive. Plum hit Dan Lewis for a gain of 73 yards. Then Ken Webb clinched the victory for the Lions with a three-yard touchdown run.

Bobby Layne replaced Ed Brown at quarterback with 7:46 remaining in the game and almost completed a Steelers' comeback. However, his effort fell short. Layne did complete 4-of-8 passes for 69 yards and one interception.

1972 AFC Divisional Playoff
Pittsburgh 13, Oakland 7

PITTSBURGH — Two unusual plays, one perhaps the oddest—and certainly the most controversial—in the long history of professional football, provided most of the offense in the final two minutes of what had been a tension-filled defensive struggle.

Field goals of 18 and 20 yards by Roy Gerela had given Pittsburgh a 6-0 lead. QB Ken Stabler erased it as he scrambled 30 yards on a broken play to put Oakland in front with one minute and 13 seconds remaining.

Down to their last play, the Steelers were 60 yards from the Oakland goal when rookie Franco Harris made an incredible shoe-top catch off a ricocheted pass and ran 42 yards for the TD.

The dispute on the game-winning play centered on whether the flight of the ball was altered by the contact of Oakland's Jack Tatum or the Steelers' John "Frenchy" Fuqua.

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers stumbled on the last step to a Super Bowl berth when QB Bob Griese rallied the unbeaten Miami Dolphins.

Actually, the outcome may have been determined on a trick play. With the Steelers leading 7-0 by virtue of a TD the first time they had the ball, Larry Seiple ran 37 yards on a fake punt deep into Pittsburgh territory.

The play took away the Steelers' early momentum and led to the Dolphins tying score. After a field goal early in the third quarter gave Pittsburgh its last lead, Griese took over from Earl Morrall and drove his team 80 yards for the go-ahead TD.

A blocked field goal attempt paved the way for Miami's third TD. Terry Bradshaw made it necessary as he returned to the game after suffering a first quarter head injury. He completed four straight passes for 71 yards to pull his team within four points, but two interceptions ended Pittsburgh's Cinderella season.

December 22, 1973

OAKLAND, Calif. — The Raiders got a full measure of revenge for three straight losses to the Steelers, including one on the opening round of the AFC playoffs in 1972.

Oakland drove 80 yards for a touchdown the first time they had the ball and quarterback Ken Stabler mixed a strong inside running game with accurate short passes, a pattern he was to follow all afternoon.

A Steelers' touchdown late in the second quarter narrowed the halftime score to 10-7.

The Raiders added field goals on their first two third-quarter possessions. Two plays after the second one Willie Brown picked off a Terry Bradshaw pass in the flat and returned it 54 yards to put the game out of reach.

A fourth George Blanda field goal preceded Bradshaw's second touchdown pass—a 26-yarder to Frank Lewis.

1974 AFC Divisional Playoff

December 22, 1974

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers' offense took the pressure off their defensive teammates early by exploding for four second-quarter touchdowns as Terry Bradshaw played one of the finest games of his pro career.

Trailing 7-3 after young Joe Ferguson led the Bills on a well-executed 56-yard drive, the Steelers went ahead for good when Bradshaw connected with Rocky Bleier for a 27-yard scoring toss. Before the halftime intermission, Franco Harris ripped off three touchdown runs in less than five minutes to tie an NFL record and put the game out of Buffalo's reach.

Harris' middle score was set up by Lynn Swann's sensational diving catch on the Buffalo four-yard line that was the game's biggest play and probably the turning point.

The game's most crucial turnover, a Jim Braxton fumble after he had run 30 yards into Steelers' territory, preceded that Pittsburgh series.

The big halftime margin forced the Bills out of their normal ball-control offense and Ferguson was greatly handicapped as he threw 15 times in the second half against a stacked defense. While Buffalo played catch-up, the Steelers were content to run the ball. Bradshaw threw just five times in the final half.

OAKLAND, Calif. — The Steelers combined the power running of Franco Harris and Rocky Bleier with a defense that held the Raiders to an incredible 29 yards rushing and intercepted three Ken Stabler passes en route to a 24-13 victory.

The Steelers took command of the game after Stabler combined with Cliff Branch on a 38-yard touchdown pass to give the Raiders a 10-3 lead in the third quarter.

The teams had traded first half field goals. Taking the kickoff following Branch's score, the Steelers grinded out 61 yards in nine plays with Harris blasting up the middle for eight yards and the touchdown on the first play of the fourth quarter. Jack Ham's second interception of the day paved the way to the Steelers' winning score. He returned it 24 yards to the Oakland nine.

Terry Bradshaw, who played another outstanding game, hit Lynn Swann in the end zone for the touchdown. The Raiders added a second field goal but it was the end of the line for them as the Steeler defense totally dominated the line of scrimmage.

J.T. Thomas' interception with just over a minute to play ended any Oakland comeback hopes. Harris followed with a 21-yard touchdown run.

PITTSBURGH — Franco Harris ran for an AFC playoff record 153 yards but it was Mel Blount's interception late in the third quarter that provided the Steelers with the impetus to overcome a 10-7 Baltimore lead, propelling the Steelers to a 28-10 victory.

Following Jack Ham's interception, the Steelers put together a 61-yard, four-play drive, highlighted by Frank Lewis' sensational one-handed 34-yard catch, to take a 7-0 lead late in the first quarter.

Playing without regular quarterback Bert Jones, the Colts used a Lloyd Mumphord interception to tie the game on Marty Domres' pass to Glenn Doughty.

Another turnover, one of four by the Steelers, a fumble by Harris at his own 19, gave the Colts a field goal and their only lead of the game. Three minutes later Blount made his steal and Bleier scored standing up on the first play.

The Pittsburgh defense stiffened, holding the Colts without a first down on their next three possessions. The Steelers put it out of reach with Terry Bradshaw's gutty two-yard touchdown run which capped a 39-yard drive.

Then Andy Russell scored on a record 93-yard fumble return following a Ham sacking of Jones who had returned at the start of the final quarter.

PITTSBURGH — In a game that was not decided until the final play, the Steelers overcame eight turnovers, including a lost onside kick, which gave the Raiders a final opportunity to win, for a 16-10 victory.

The game was played on an icy field with temperatures in the teens and strong, gusty winds.

Oakland intercepted two passes in the first quarter but the best they could get out of them was a missed 38-yard field goal. The Steelers took advantage of the initial Raider turnover, the first of Mike Wagner's two interceptions and a 20-yard return, to get on the board with a field goal.

The Steelers missed two field-goal attempts, 44- and 48-yard tries, in a third quarter in which the Raiders committed three turnovers to the Steelers' one.

Franco Harris completed a 70-yard drive when he found the middle jammed and swung around his left side for 25 yards scoring the game's first TD on the second play of the final quarter.

Ken Stabler responded with a 60-yard, six-pass drive to reduce the Steeler lead to three again.

Another Oakland fumble, which Jack Lambert grabbed for his third recovery of the game on the Oakland 25, set up the final Steelers score. While the Steelers were running out the clock, Harris fumbled and the Raiders quickly moved into position for a 41-yard field goal. The Steelers committed their third fumble in the final five minutes of the game on the ensuing onside kickoff but time ran out on the Raiders.

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers struck quick with a 76-yard touchdown pass from Terry Bradshaw to Frank Lewis on the game's third play en route to setting league marks for total yardage and a then-team postseason record for points, with a 40-14 win.

Terry Bradshaw played the finest game of his career, setting then-personal highs by completing 78 percent of his passes for three touchdowns.

The Steelers scored five of the first six times they had the ball and their 17-point second quarter sealed the victory.

First-half interceptions by Mike Wagner and Glen Edwards and five quarterback sacks, two by Andy Russell on successive plays, paced the defense.

However, the victory was a very costly one, which would take its toll one week later.

Both Franco Harris and Rocky Bleier suffered injuries which sidelined them for the AFC title game. Harris was hurt early in the third quarter after rushing for 132 yards. Frenchy Fuqua and Reggie Harrison picked up the slack, making large contributions rushing and receiving.

1976 AFC Championship

OAKLAND, Calif. — The Steelers and Raiders met for a fifth straight year in the playoffs and third season in a row for the AFC title.

The Raiders ended the Steelers seven-game postseason winning streak with a surprisingly strong running game and the timely passing of Ken Stabler, which they parlayed with a tenacious defense onto a 24-7 victory.

Oakland grabbed a 10-point lead on a pair of Steelers' errors. A partially blocked punt led to a field goal and an interception on a deflection that was returned to the one yard-line set up a touchdown.

Forced to throw because of injuries to Franco Harris and Rocky Bleier, neither of whom played, the Steelers fought back and on their next possession and went 75 yards with all but 16 coming through the air. However, the Raiders matched it by storming 69 yards to score with 23 seconds left in the half.

After their 63-yard scoring drive in the third quarter, the Raiders were content to play conservatively while the desperate Steelers were forced to play catch-up, something they were unable to do this day.

1977 AFC Divisional Playoff

(75,011)

DENVER — Making the same mistakes that typified their play during the regular season, the Steelers were eliminated in the opening round of the playoffs for the first time since 1973, losing to Denver 34-21.

Pittsburgh lost the football on four turnovers plus a blocked punt, which accounted for 24 of Denver's points. The blocked punt and a Franco Harris fumble set up short scoring drives of 17 and 10 yards which kept the Broncos in the game in the first half when the Steelers held a 183-44 edge in offensive yardage. Both Steelers touchdowns came on long, time-consuming drives in the second quarter as Harris ran for 82 yards in the first half with 60 of them coming during the two scoring efforts.

In the second half, the Steelers deserted their productive running game and rushed the ball just nine times with Harris getting it five times after carrying on 23 occasions in the initial 30 minutes. They were outgained by Denver, 214-121.

After stopping the Broncos four times from inside the two-yard line in the third quarter, the Steelers could not get out of the hole that led to Denver's third score, a first down pass for 30 yards.

The Steelers had one more comeback attempt left as they came from behind for the third time to even the score on a 60-yard, four-play march with all but one of the yards coming through the air.

After that, Pittsburgh got just one first down on its final three possessions and turned the ball over twice on interceptions to set up Denver's last 10 points.

The lone positive note for the Steelers was Harris becoming the first pro player to gain 1,000 yards in postseason play, pushing his total to 1,050.

1978 AFC Divisional Playoff

Pittsburgh 33, Denver 10
December 30, 1978
(48,921)

PITTSBURGH — Playing their first playoff game at home in three years, the Steelers advanced to the AFC Championship game for the fourth time in six years with one of their best overall performances ever in postseason play, defeating Denver, 33-10.

After falling behind 3-0, the Steelers scored touchdowns on back-to-back possessions to assume a commanding lead and were never seriously threatened thereafter.

The offense gained 425 yards, while Terry Bradshaw had a postseason career-high of 272 yards passing and was aided by the great touchdown receptions of John Stallworth and Lynn Swann, both of whom took balls away from Denver defenders in the end zone. Stallworth set a then-NFL Divisional Playoff record with his 10 catches. Franco Harris added to four NFL postseason records he already held. He increased his totals to 1,155 yards, 282 rushing attempts, five 100-yard games and 12 touchdowns.

The Pittsburgh defense was no less than devastating, completely shutting down the Broncos' running game and marking the sixth straight game in which it did not allow 100 yards rushing. This forced Denver to go to a passing game and resulted in six quarterback sacks.

Joe Greene took away the Broncos early second-half momentum when he blocked a field goal attempt. Then Stallworth and Swann settled the issue with two big catches in a 32-second span of the fourth quarter. Sandwiched between those two plays was Rick Upchurch's fumble on the kickoff following Stallworth's big play, which Dennis Winston recovered.

1978 AFC Championship

Pittsburgh 34, Houston 5
January 7, 1979
(49,417)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers won their third AFC Championship in five years with an awesome offensive and defensive display, defeating the Houston Oilers, 34-5.

The game was played in a cold, steady rain which contributed to an NFL postseason record of 12 fumbles.

The Steelers built a 14-3 lead on touchdown runs by Franco Harris (seven yards) and Rocky Bleier (17 yards). They broke the game open with a 17-point burst in the last 52 seconds of the first half by capitalizing on three Houston fumbles. Both touchdowns in this span came on Terry Bradshaw passes to John Stallworth and Lynn Swann.

The Steelers quarterback was spectacular in completing 11-of-19 attempts for 200 yards while Dan Pastorini, his counterpart, was harassed by the Pittsburgh defense and the weather. He was intercepted five times and sacked on four occasions, and the tremendous Steelers pass rush forced him to throw most of the time under severe pressure.

Rookie Earl Campbell, the NFL's leading rusher, was limited to 26 yards on 15 carries in the first half and finished the game with just 62 yards on 22 attempts.

The Steelers' dominance was best exhibited by the first half yardage totals of 287 to 54. All-Pro linebacker Jack Ham was a standout with an interception, two fumble recoveries and a sack. The Steelers enjoyed great field position most of the game that was aided by 90 yards in interception returns and 91 yards on Theo Bell's six punt returns.

1979 AFC Divisional Playoff

Pittsburgh 34, Miami 14
December 30, 1979
(50,214)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers were flawless in the first quarter, controlling the football for more than 13 minutes and scoring touchdowns the first three times they had the ball en route to a 34-14 victory. Miami was able to run just seven plays for a net of two yards.

Pittsburgh converted four of four third-down plays in the opening period and was successful on 11-of-14 the entire game. In directing the three early drives, Terry Bradshaw completed 7-of-9 passes.

With a big cushion, the defense never gave Miami a chance, stopping the Dolphins without a score twice in the second quarter when they had first downs inside the Pittsburgh 10-yard line. Dennis Winston's interception ended one drive and a great goal-line stand the other.

At halftime the Steelers held a 229-35 edge in yardage and a 15-4 margin in first downs. For the game, the Dolphins, a ball-control team, rushed for 25 yards on 22 carries with 21 of those yards coming in the final quarter.

It was the fourth straight postseason game in which the Steelers had scored over 30 points. Bradshaw set a personal postseason record with 21 completions, and Franco Harris was the leading rusher for the 12th time in 15 postseason games increasing his all-time lead total to 1,357 yards and scored his 15th touchdown, another postseason record. The victory was the Steelers' 15th straight at home and sixth postseason win in a row at Three Rivers Stadium.

1979 AFC Championship

Pittsburgh 27, Houston 13

(50,475)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers won their fourth AFC Championship in six years in a hard-fought, physical game over the Houston Oilers that was much closer than the 27-13 final score indicates, typifying the rivalry that exists between the AFC Central rivals.

Even though the statistics favored the Steelers, their last touchdown came in the final minute and the final score was their largest margin of the game.

Terry Bradshaw continued his spectacular postseason play, converting 13-of-19 third-down opportunities, and the defense did not allow a touchdown, holding the Oilers to just 24 yards rushing and Earl Campbell to 15 yards on 17 attempts.

Houston jumped in front when Vernon Perry stopped a promising drive with an interception which he returned 75 yards for a score. The teams traded field goals on back-to-back possessions.

Bradshaw guided his team to touchdowns on their next two chances which gave the Steelers a lead they never surrendered although it was seriously threatened late in the third quarter when the officials ruled Mike Renfro did not have possession on what appeared to be a tying touchdown pass. The Oilers settled for a field goal which the Steelers soon matched.

A fumble led to Pittsburgh's last score.

Bradshaw's two touchdown passes gave him a postseason career total of 26, an NFL record, increasing his yardage record to 3,199. Franco Harris was the leading rusher for the 13th time in 16 postseason games and increased his rushing yardage to 1,442, another NFL mark. The win was the Steelers 16th straight at home and seventh playoff win in a row at Three Rivers Stadium.

1982 AFC Tournament

San Diego 31, Pittsburgh 28
January 9, 1983
(53,546)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers ended their 50th season with one of their most bitter losses ever, a 31-28 defeat to the San Diego Chargers.

Dan Fouts threw two short touchdown passes to Kellen Winslow in the final nine minutes after the Steelers had taken an 11-point lead early in the fourth quarter.

Terry Bradshaw played one of the greatest games of his career, completing 25 of his first 28 passes, including 15 in a row, but threw two interceptions, which knocked the Steelers out of the playoffs.

The initial interception came on a first down play from the San Diego 29-yard line on the first play after the two-minute warning in the second quarter with the Steelers leading, 14-10. Bruce Laird returned the interception 35 yards and the Chargers drove 64 yards to take their first lead, 17-14.

The last and most costly interception came with 11 minutes to play and the Steelers holding a 28-17 margin. This one was returned by Jeff Allen to the Pittsburgh 29-yard line from where the Chargers scored on five plays plus an important holding penalty which nullified a Mel Blount interception.

After two Steelers first downs on the next series, John Goodson's 20-yard punt gave San Diego decent field position and they capitalized on the winning score.

The game started on a bizarre note when rookie Guy Ruff recovered James Brooks' fumble off the opening kickoff in the end zone to set an NFL record for the quickest score at the start of the game.

1983 AFC Divisional Playoff

(90,334)

LOS ANGELES — For the second straight year, the Steelers were eliminated in the first round of the playoffs, losing 38-10, to the Los Angeles Raiders. The defeat was their fifth in the last six games and their sixth straight to the Raiders.

After taking the lead on an impressive 78-yard drive, which produced three first downs, the Pittsburgh offense struggled for the balance of the game.

On their first scoring series, the Steelers elected to kick a field goal rather than try for a touchdown inches from the Raider goal line. The march was highlighted by a spectacular 44-yard reception by Wayne Capers. The Raiders took the lead the next time the Steelers had the ball when Lester Hayes stepped in front of a Cliff Stoudt to Calvin Sweeney sideline pass. Los Angeles scored on its next possession and added a field goal with six seconds remaining in the first half.

The Raiders scored the first three times they had the ball in the second half with drives of 72, 58, and 65 yards, while the Steelers settled for a 58-yard scoring pass from Stoudt to John Stallworth.

It was a record-tying 10th touchdown reception for Stallworth and the eighth straight playoff game in which he had scored to extend his own NFL mark.

The attendance of 90,334 was the largest postseason crowd in NFL history other than a Super Bowl and the second largest to ever see the Steelers play.

1984 AFC Divisional Playoff

Pittsburgh 24, Denver 17
December 30, 1984
(74,981)

DENVER — The Steelers overcame a near-disastrous start, a blocked punt and three missed field goals to earn their first postseason win since Super Bowl XIV, a 24-17 victory over Denver.

Eric Williams' interception and 28-yard return to the two-yard line with three and a half minutes to go set up the winning touchdown, scored on a gutty two-yard plunge by Frank Pollard. Twice the Steelers came back from seven point deficits and their three scoring drives prior to the final TD averaged almost 70 yards while the Broncos, meanwhile, never traveled more than 46 yards for their 17 points.

The game opened with Mark Malone losing two fumbles in Pittsburgh's first two possessions. However, Malone rebounded from his early miscues to complete six-of-eight passes on the Steelers' two scoring drives that gave them a halftime lead, 10-7.

A blocked punt on Pittsburgh's first second half possession gave Denver the ball on the four-yard line but for the second time inside their own 10, the Steeler defense stiffened and the Broncos had to settle for a field goal. The next time the Broncos had the ball they broke the 10-10 tie with their most impressive offensive series of the game with the touchdown coming on a John Elway bullet to Steve Watson, the Denver offensive hero with 11 receptions. After a 10-yard touchdown reception by Louis Lipps on which he broke several tackles, the Broncos managed only two first downs the rest of the game.

Two plays after a Gary Anderson missed field goal attempt, Williams turned the game around again with his big interception. Pollard with 99 yards and Abercrombie with 75 had postseason career highs rushing while Gary Dunn had his first career interception in the second quarter to end a Denver threat on the four-yard line.

1984 AFC Championship

Miami 45, Pittsburgh 28
January 6, 1985
(76,029)

MIAMI — Dan Marino set AFC Championship game records with 421 yards passing and four touchdowns to lead the Dolphins to a 45-28 victory over Pittsburgh.

Eleven of Marino's 21 completions were for 20 yards or more and three were at least 40 yards, as the Steelers secondary could not contain the ultra-quick Dolphin receivers and three of their touchdown drives took less than two minutes to complete.

The Steelers controlled the ball on the ground most of the first half but after they had taken a 14-10 lead on John Stallworth's NFL record 11th touchdown reception in postseason, the Dolphins scored two touchdowns in the last 2:52 of the half and added another one on their first possession of the second half.

Following the scoring barrage, the Steelers were forced to open up their offense and stray away from their ball-control game which was very effective in the first 30 minutes and had accounted for 123 yards rushing and a four-minute edge in possession time. If there was a turning point, it came with a minute and a half left in the first half and Miami holding a 17-14 lead when Mark Malone suffered his third interception which the Dolphins quickly converted into a touchdown and a 10-point margin.

From the end of the first half to their first series of the fourth quarter, the Dolphins scored on five straight possessions. The 1,024 total yards by both teams was an AFC title game record as was the 50 first downs. Stallworth added to his touchdown reception mark with a tumbling third-quarter touchdown reception that brought the Steelers to within 10 points. Marino answered with 80 and 66-yard drives to put the game out of reach. Malone had career-highs with 20 completions and 312 yards passing.

1989 AFC Wild Card Game

Pittsburgh 26, Houston 23 (OT)
December 31, 1989
(58,306)

HOUSTON — Houston attempted and missed a 55-yard field goal on their first possession and had a punt blocked by linebacker Jerry Olsavsky on their second to set up running back Tim Worley's nine-yard touchdown run which came on a fourth-and-one situation to set the tone for a 26-23 overtime win.

Both teams then added three field goals each before the Oilers staged a fourth-quarter comeback.

Quarterback Warren Moon hit wide receiver Ernest Givins with touchdown passes of 19 and nine yards to put Houston ahead 23-16 with 6:02 left in the game. The Steelers then marched 82 yards on 11 plays, including a 22-yard reverse by wide receiver Dwight Stone, to tie the score at 23-23 with 46 seconds remaining.

In overtime, Pittsburgh got the ball first but was forced to punt after three plays, giving Houston possession at their own 45-yard line. On the Oilers' first play, running back Lorenzo White ran left and fumbled when hit by cornerback Rod Woodson, who recovered the ball at the Houston 46. Five plays later, Gary Anderson booted a 50-yard field goal to end the game at 3:26 of overtime.

Anderson's field goal broke two Steelers postseason records, for most in a game (four) and longest. Running back Merril Hoge became the second Steelers running back to rush for 100 yards in a postseason game, while the Oilers' Givins finished with 11 receptions for 136 yards and two touchdowns.

1989 Divisional Playoff

Denver 24, Pittsburgh 23
January 7, 1990
(75,868)

DENVER — The Steelers dominated Denver throughout the game before falling behind by one point with 2:27 remaining, and suffered a 24-23 loss. A fumbled snap from shotgun formation on third down led to the defeat and eliminated them from advancing to the AFC Championship game.

The Steelers produced a season-high 404 offensive yards including 180 total yards by running back Merril Hoge, but Denver marched 71 yards in nine plays on a fourth-quarter drive for the winning touchdown.

The Steelers had a lead throughout the game, opening with the first of Gary Anderson's three field goals. In the second quarter, Hoge swept left end untouched for a seven-yard touchdown run that extended the Steelers' lead to 10-0 and capped a 93-yard drive that began with a 45-yard run by Hoge.

The Broncos responded with a 12-play, 75-yard drive with running back Melvin Bratton scoring the first of his two one-yard touchdown runs.

Wide receiver Louis Lipps gave Pittsburgh a 10-point lead again with a nine-yard touchdown catch from Bubby Brister, but the Broncos tied the score at 17-17 on wide receiver Vance Johnson's 37-yard reception. Anderson's 35- and 32-yard field goals extended the Steelers' lead to six before Bratton's touchdown and the PAT put Denver ahead, 24-23.

Hoge became the first Steelers player to have consecutive 100-yard rushing games in postseason as he ran 10 times for 100 yards in the first half. Anderson set a team record with his seventh consecutive field goal in postseason, while Brister's 65.5 percent completion rate (19 of 29) was the fourth highest in team history for a game.

1992 AFC Divisional Playoff

Buffalo 24, Pittsburgh 3
January 9, 1993
(60,407)

PITTSBURGH — Ten years to the day since their last home playoff game, the Steelers fell victim to turnovers and a tough Buffalo defense in front of a then-Three Rivers Stadium-record crowd of 60,407, for a 24-3 loss.

Gary Anderson's 38-yard field goal on their first drive was the extent of Pittsburgh's scoring as Neil O'Donnell threw two interceptions, fumbled once and was sacked seven times in his first action since December 6.

The Bills' first touchdown came on a one-yard pass from Frank Reich to offensive lineman Mitch Frerotte while the Steelers lost two interceptions and a fumble in the first half to fall behind 7-3. Buffalo scored on their first three possessions of the second half while the Steelers punted twice, failed to convert a fourth-down attempt and gave the ball up on downs following an aborted field goal try on their four second-half drives.

A turning point in the game came in the middle of the third quarter when left cornerback Richard Shelton stepped in front of Don Beebe but was unable to make the interception with an open field in front of him. James Lofton caught a 17-yard scoring pass on the next play to give the Bills a 14-3 lead.

The Steelers got inside the Buffalo 20 only twice and got a field goal, but Buffalo capitalized with three touchdowns on three trips inside the Pittsburgh 20.

Thurman Thomas was held to 54 yards rushing although Kenneth Davis gained 104 yards on 10 carries. Barry Foster countered with 104 yards on 20 carries in his first postseason game.

1993 Wild Card Game

Kansas City 27, Pittsburgh 24 (OT)
January 8, 1994
(74,515)

KANSAS CITY — The Steelers never trailed until Nick Lowery's 32-yard field goal 11:03 into overtime clinched the 27-24 Kansas City win.

Scoring on their first drive, Pittsburgh held a 10-point lead at halftime before the Chiefs came back with 17 second-half points, tying the Steelers at 17-17 in the fourth quarter and at 24-24 with 1:43 left in the game.

The final tying touchdown was set up on a blocked punt by the Chiefs' Keith Cash, which was returned 31 yards by Fred Jones to the Pittsburgh nine-yard line.

From there, on fourth-and-goal, Joe Montana found Tim Barnett in the back of the end zone with his only touchdown pass.

The Steelers were then forced to punt again, and the Chiefs drove to the Pittsburgh 25 with an opportunity to take the lead, but Lowery's 43-yard field goal try was wide right with 12 seconds remaining.

In overtime, both teams punted on their first possession before Kansas City marched 66 yards in 11 plays to the Pittsburgh 14, setting up Lowery's game-winner.

Neil O'Donnell threw three touchdown passes, one each to tight ends Adrian Cooper and Eric Green as well as wide receiver Ernie Mills, while completing 23-of-42 attempts for 286 yards. Despite throwing incomplete on his first seven passes, Montana completed 28 of 42 for 276 yards and was sacked four times, three by Gerald Williams.

The Steelers converted nine of 19 third-down plays with a good mix of runs and passes, and had a possession advantage of 32:08 to 27:52 in regulation, but the Chiefs held the ball for 8:13 in overtime and limited the Steelers to just 2:50.

1994 AFC Championship

San Diego 17, Pittsburgh 13
January 15, 1995
(61,545)

PITTSBURGH — The Chargers used a goal-line stand in the final two minutes to deal Pittsburgh a heart-breaking 17-13 loss before a record crowd of 61,545 at Three Rivers Stadium.

Pittsburgh opened the game with a 13-play, 67-yard drive to take a 7-0 lead. Twice the Steelers advanced inside San Diego's 20-yard line but only came away with two Gary Anderson field goals.

Pittsburgh led 13-3 until midway through the third quarter when Chargers' quarterback Stan Humphries connected with Alfred Pupunu for a 43-yard score.

The Steelers, who nearly doubled San Diego's offensive output in all categories, didn't fall behind until there were less than six minutes remaining in the game. A San Diego false start penalty on Harry Swayne nullified a third-down defensive stand to give the Chargers one more chance. On third-down and in need of 14 yards, Humphries hit Tony Martin with a 43-yard score with Tim McKeyer in coverage to give the Chargers a 17-13 lead.

The Steelers began their final drive at their 17 yard-line to the Chargers' three. On fourth down and three yards, San Diego linebacker Dennis Gibson batted down the scoring strike intended for Barry Foster. San Diego controlled the clock for the game's final minute.

1995 AFC Divisional Playoff

Pittsburgh 40, Buffalo 21
January 6, 1996
(59,072)

PITTSBURGH — The Pittsburgh Steelers dealt the Buffalo Bills their worst postseason loss in non-Super Bowl play with a 40-21 defeat in Three Rivers Stadium.

Pittsburgh scored on five of their seven first-half possessions, including touchdowns by John L. Williams and Ernie Mills on their first two drives. Buffalo added a Thurman Thomas touchdown at 49 seconds before the half, but Pittsburgh closed the half with Norm Johnson's third field goal to take a 23-7 halftime lead.

It seemed the game might turn into a rout when Pittsburgh marched to the Bills' four yard-line on the first possession of the second half, but the drive ended with a Greg Evans interception.

The Steelers added a record (tied) fourth field goal by Norm Johnson in the third quarter to take a 19-point lead.

Buffalo battled back with a touchdown pass from Jim Kelly to Thurman Thomas to cut the lead to less than a touchdown with over 11 minutes remaining in the game. Pittsburgh responded with a 76-yard drive that included key third-down receptions by Yancey Thigpen for 21 yards and Andre Hastings for 17 yards. Bam Morris finished off the drive with a 13-yard touchdown run.

Interceptions by Jerry Olsavsky and Levon Kirkland ended the Bills' next two drives, the latter at the Bills' 17 yard-line. Four plays later, the Steelers added a second Bam Morris touchdown and gained a 40-21 advantage at the two-minute warning.

The 40 points scored tied a then Steelers postseason game high (40, Dec. 19, 1976 at Baltimore). The offense ran 78 plays, second most all-time postseason, and the line allowed no sacks for the 12th time in postseason history.

1995 AFC Championship

PITTSBURGH — The Pittsburgh Steelers exorcised the demons of the 1994 AFC Championship game with a 20-16 heart-stopper over the Indianapolis Colts to advance to the Super Bowl.

For the second straight year it was a pass on the game's final play that determined Pittsburgh's Super Bowl future. A Hail Mary pass by Colts' quarterback Jim Harbaugh to Aaron Bailey was batted away by DB Randy Fuller to send the Steelers to Arizona.

The game was reminiscent of the 1995 AFC Championship game. The Steelers had a 10-6 advantage at halftime with a five-yard touchdown pass from Neil O'Donnell to Kordell Stewart in the closing seconds of the half and a first quarter Norm Johnson field goal.

The Colts' scoring came from the foot of kicker Cary Blanchard. Indianapolis added a third field goal on their opening drive in the third quarter to pull within one point.

The Steelers countered with a second Norm Johnson field goal, but found themselves behind 16-13 after Jim Harbaugh hit Floyd Turner for a 47-yard touchdown strike with 8:46 remaining in the game.

The Steelers and the Colts traded punts as the clock slipped to 3:03 and Pittsburgh took over the ball at their own 33 yard-line. After a fourth-down reception by Andre Hastings, O'Donnell hit Ernie Mills along the right sideline for a 37-yard gain to advance to the Colts' one-yard line. Two plays later, Bam Morris punched in the go-ahead touchdown.

However, the Colts weren't ready to be corralled. Starting at his own 16-yard line, Jim Harbaugh led Indianapolis to the Pittsburgh 29-yard line before throwing the "Hail Mary" pass with just five seconds left in the game.

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers overcame two first-half turnovers to score the most points in Steelers playoff history and the team's most decisive postseason win in 18 years with a 42-14 victory against Indianapolis.

The team scored the game's first 13 points and final 29 with a ground attack that ranked fourth in Steelers postseason history.

The Steelers took a 10-0 lead with Norm Johnson field goal and Kordell Stewart's one-yard touchdown scamper that was set up by a Jahine Arnold 31-yard punt return. Pittsburgh added a 50-yard Johnson field goal to start the second quarter.

Indianapolis responded with 14 unanswered points for a 14-13 halftime lead.

Pittsburgh regained the momentum on the opening drive of the second half. Starting from their own nine-yard line, the Steelers marched 91 yards in 16 plays while running 9:30 off the clock. The drive ended with a Jerome Bettis touchdown and a Stewart to John Farquhar two-point conversion.

The Steelers offense churned out 228 yards in the second half, while the defense held the Colts to 22 second-half yards and two first downs. Included in the Steelers three fourth-quarter touchdowns was Witman's 31-yard rushing touchdown which was his first NFL touchdown and second-longest postseason touchdown run in Steelers' history.

Five rushing touchdowns was a single-game postseason record. It was the fourth time in a Steeler playoff history they had a 100-yard rusher and 100-yard receiver in a game. The Steelers' 42 points was their highest point total in the postseason.

1996 AFC Divisional Playoff

FOXBORO, Mass. — The Steelers playoff hopes ended on a fog enshrouded field in Foxboro and a 28-3 defeat.

It was a game of big plays from the opening drive. Unfortunately, the Patriots made them and scored on three of their first four possessions.

Quarterback Drew Bledsoe hit Terry Glenn for a 53-yard gain against Rod Woodson on New England's first play from scrimmage. One play later, Curtis Martin made the score, 7-0.

The Steelers second possession ended with their second punt. New England used a short field to gain a 14-0 lead with a Bledsoe to Keith Byars 34-yard touchdown reception.

New England added an exclamation point when Martin broke a 78-yard touchdown run to open the second quarter. Pittsburgh's struggling offense gained just 29 yards in 13 plays in three first-quarter possessions. They fared no better in the second quarter, converting just one of seven third-down plays.

Jerome Bettis, despite two pulled groin muscles, tried to carry the ground attack. The Steelers turned a Chad Brown interception into a Norm Johnson field goal, giving them their only points of the day. But two second-half interceptions, including one that led to a third Martin touchdown, kept the Steelers from making a rally.

1997 AFC Divisional Playoff

Pittsburgh 7, New England 6
January 3, 1998
(61,228)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers defeated the New England Patriots for the second time in three weeks, 7-6, in the AFC Divisional Playoff.

Pittsburgh forced four turnovers, including two in the final 1:44 of the game, and advanced to the AFC Championship for the third time in four years.

The Steelers struck early when Kordell Stewart scampered around left end and raced 40 yards for a touchdown on the team's opening possession with 9:49 left in the first quarter. The drive began when rookie cornerback Chad Scott intercepted quarterback Drew Bledsoe and returned it 27 yards to the Steelers 38.

New England was limited to a pair of short field goals by Adam Vinatieri and fell two games short of a return to the Super Bowl.

Linebacker Jason Gildon recovered a pair of fumbles for the Steelers. The second recovery came after backup left end Mike Vrabel stripped Bledsoe of the ball, and Gildon pounced on it at the Pittsburgh 34 with 1:44 to play.

The Patriots got back the ball in the final seconds before linebacker Levon Kirkland intercepted a long pass by Bledsoe to seal the win.

PITTSBURGH — John Elway passed for two touchdowns in the final 1:47 of the first half to help Denver build a 24-14 lead, while the Broncos defense forced four turnovers by Pittsburgh quarterback Kordell Stewart to propel Denver to a 24-21 victory against the Steelers in the AFC Championship Game.

The Steelers, who were hosting the AFC Championship for the third time in four years under coach Bill Cowher, had a 14-7 lead after a Kordell Stewart 33-yard touchdown run in the first quarter.

Stewart was 6-of-17 for 69 yards with two interceptions in the first half. He finished 18-of-36 for 201 yards with three interceptions and a fumble.

The only score of the second half was a 15-yard touchdown pass from Stewart to Charles Johnson that pulled the Steelers within 24-21 with 2:46 left in the fourth quarter. The touchdown capped a 10-play, 79-yard drive in just 2:57.

Because Pittsburgh had all three timeouts left, Cowher opted not to attempt an on-side kick. But just after the two-minute warning on a third-and-six play, Elway drilled an 18-yard pass to tight end Shannon Sharpe to the Denver 33 with Jason Gildon in coverage. On the next play, Elway rolled right and flipped a 10-yard pass to Ed McCaffrey. Davis then broke off a 19-yard run with less than 50 seconds remaining to seal the win.

2001 AFC Divisional Playoff

Pittsburgh 27, Baltimore 10
January 20, 2002
(63,976)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers advanced to the AFC Championship Game by dominating the Baltimore Ravens during a 27-10 victory at Heinz Field.

Starting running back Jerome Bettis missed the game due to an adverse reaction to pain medication that he received prior to the game.

However, the Steelers' defense dominated the game, limiting Baltimore to only 22 yards rushing and 150 yards total, while intercepting Ravens quarterback Elvis Grbac three times, including two interceptions in the end zone by free safety Brent Alexander.

Steelers' cornerback Chad Scott intercepted Grbac's first pass of the game to set up Kris Brown's 21-yard field goal that gave Pittsburgh a 3-0 first quarter lead.

Pittsburgh extended their lead to 10-0 later in the quarter when running back Amos Zereoue capped a 51-yard drive with a one-yard touchdown run.

Zereoue's second touchdown, also from one yard out, increased the Steelers' lead to 17-0 midway through the second quarter. Brown's 46-yard field goal on Pittsburgh's next drive gave the Steelers a 20-0 advantage with 3:46 left in the first half.

A 26-yard field goal by Baltimore kicker Matt Stover made the score 20-3 at halftime. Jermaine Lewis' 88-yard punt return for a touchdown in the third quarter pulled the Ravens to within 20-10.

Pittsburgh made the final score 27-10 when quarterback Kordell Stewart completed a 32-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Plaxico Burress early in the fourth quarter.

2001 AFC Championship Game

New England 24, Pittsburgh 17
January 27, 2002
(64,704)

PITTSBURGH — After trailing 21-3 in the third quarter, a Steelers' comeback fell short as Pittsburgh was defeated by the Patriots, 24-17, ending their Super Bowl hopes.

Despite the anticipated return of running back Jerome Bettis, the Steelers ground game never got rolling against a Patriots defense that held Pittsburgh's league leading rushing attack to a season-low 58 yards.

New England jumped out to a 7-0 lead after a penalty nullified a 64-yard Josh Miller punt and Troy Brown returned the second kick 55 yards for a touchdown in the first quarter. The Steelers responded with a 10-play, 65-yard drive that ended with Kris Brown booting a 30-yard field goal to cut the Patriots' lead to 7-3.

With two minutes left in the first half, New England quarterback Tom Brady was forced out of the game with an ankle injury after completing a 28-yard pass to Troy Brown on a key third-down play. Drew Bledsoe came in and moved the offense 40-yards in four plays, capped by an 11-yard touchdown pass to David Patten, giving the Patriots to take a 14-3 halftime lead.

Things continued to look glum for Pittsburgh when Kris Brown's 34-yard field goal attempt was blocked by defensive lineman Brian Mitchell and recovered by Troy Brown who lateraled the ball to Antwan Harris for a 49-yard return for a touchdown to give New England a 21-3 advantage.

The Steelers offense then found their rhythm, scoring on the next two possessions with touchdown runs (1, 11) by Jerome Bettis and Amos Zereoue, respectively, pulling Pittsburgh within 21-17 through three quarters.

New England kicker Adam Vinatieri's 44-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter put the Patriots up 24-17 with 11:12 left. The Steelers were forced to punt on the ensuing drive and Kordell Stewart was intercepted in their final two possessions.

(63,976)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers rallied from a 13-point, fourth-quarter deficit to defeat the Cleveland Browns, 36-33, in one of the most thrilling games in team history.

The Steelers overcame three early turnovers and several big plays by Cleveland to register the come-from-behind victory. Pittsburgh trailed 24-7 in the third quarter and 33-21 in the fourth before scoring two touchdowns in the final 3:06 to win.

The Browns led 14-0 after a touchdown run by RB William Green and a 32-yard TD pass by QB Kelly Holcomb to WR Dennis Northcutt.

Steelers' rookie WR Antwaan Randle El muffed a punt earlier that set up a Browns' score, but he rebounded to return his next punt 66 yards for a touchdown to make the score, 14-7. It was the longest postseason punt return in Steelers' history and the first punt return for a touchdown in the postseason by a Steeler.

The Browns increased their lead to 24-7 on a 31-yard field goal by K Phil Dawson and a 15-yard touchdown pass.

Steelers QB Tommy Maddox, who threw for a team postseason-record 367 yards and three touchdowns, connected with WR Plaxico Burress for a six-yard touchdown pass with 3:50 left in the third quarter to close the score to 24-14.

A 22-yard touchdown pass by Holcomb increased Cleveland's lead to 33-21 after a failed two-point conversion attempt.

Maddox led Pittsburgh on a 10-play, 77-yard drive, capped off by a five-yard TD pass to WR Hines Ward to pull within five, 33-28.

Pittsburgh forced the Browns to punt and then drove 61 yards in 1:41, culminating with a three-yard touchdown run by RB Chris Fuamatu-Ma'afala. Randle El then completed a pass to Tuman for the two-point conversion to give the Steelers a 36-33 lead.

NASHVILLE — The Steelers lost a hard-fought game against the Tennessee Titans in overtime, 34-31.

The Titans jumped out to a 14-0 first-quarter lead, but the Steelers scored 20 straight points by early in the third quarter.

QB Tommy Maddox led Pittsburgh on an eight-play, 61-yard drive at the end of the second quarter and Reed's 39-yard field goal made the score 14-13 at the half.

On Tennessee's first play from scrimmage in the second half, Steelers NT Casey Hampton tackled George for a two-yard loss, forcing a fumble that was recovered by DE Aaron Smith. George received a concussion and did not return to the game.

Pittsburgh capitalized on the fumble when RB Amos Zereoue broke several tackles and raced 31 yards for a touchdown on the first play, which put it ahead 20-14.

Two Tennessee scores made it 28-20 before Maddox connected with Ward for a 21-yard touchdown pass in the fourth quarter to make the score 28-26. Ward tied the game with a pass to Plaxico Burress for the two-point conversion.

Reed's 40-yard field goal and a 42-yard kick by Tennessee K Joe Nedney made the score 31-31 in the fourth quarter. Nedney missed a 48-yard attempt at the end of regulation.

Tennessee got the ball in overtime and McNair completed two passes to WR Justin McCareins to put the Titans in field-goal position. Nedney missed a 31-yard attempt, but Steelers CB Dewayne Washington was flagged for running into the kicker. Nedney then converted a 26-yarder to give the Titans a 34-31 victory.

PITTSBURGH — A 33-yard field goal by K Jeff Reed allowed the Steelers to pull out a thrilling, 20-17, overtime victory against the New York Jets at Heinz Field.

The Steelers nearly saw their Super Bowl dreams end twice in the fourth quarter, but Jets K Doug Brien missed field goals of 47 and 43 yards in the final 2:02, sending the game into overtime tied at 17-17.

Pittsburgh took a 3-0 lead in the first quarter on a 45-yard field goal by Reed. Steelers' SS Troy Polamalu intercepted Pennington's next pass and returned it 14 yards to the Jets 25-yard line, setting up a three-yard touchdown run by RB Jerome Bettis for a 10-0 Pittsburgh lead.

The Jets tied the game in the second quarter on a field goal (42) by Brien and a 75-yard punt return by Santana Moss.

The game remained tied until late in the third quarter when Steelers QB Ben Roethlisberger was intercepted by Jets SS Reggie Tongue, who returned the ball 86 yards for a touchdown and a 17-10 New York lead.

The Jets held the lead until Roethlisberger completed a four-yard shovel pass to WR Hines Ward, tying the game at 17-17, with six minutes left in regulation.

Brien missed a 47-yard field-goal attempt with 2:02 left in regulation, but Roethlisberger was intercepted by Jets CB David Barrett, who returned it 24 yards to the Pittsburgh 37. Brien, however, missed a 43-yard attempt at the end of regulation to send the game into overtime.

After the Jets were forced to punt on their first drive in overtime, Pittsburgh regained possession at their own 13-yard line and moved the ball 72 yards on 13 plays, to the New York 15-yard line. After a New York timeout, Reed booted his 33-yard field goal to win the game.

CINCINNATI — Pittsburgh scored 24 unanswered points to turn a 17-7 deficit into a 31-17 victory over Cincinnati in the AFC Wild Card Game at Paul Brown Stadium. The win marked the first road playoff victory for head coach Bill Cowher.

The Pittsburgh offense compiled 346 total yards led by QB Ben Roethlisberger, who tossed three touchdowns and finished with a QB rating of 148.7. RB Jerome Bettis ran for 52 yards on 10 carries (5.2 avg.) and one touchdown. WR Cedrick Wilson caught three passes for 104 yards (34.7 avg.), with one touchdown.

The Steelers defense recorded four sacks and two interceptions while holding the Bengals to just 84 yards rushing.

Cincinnati was dealt an early blow when starting QB Carson Palmer suffered a torn ACL on the first offensive play of the game. The Bengals jumped out to a 10-0 lead with a 23-yard field goal by K Shayne Graham and a 20-yard touchdown run by RB Rudi Johnson.

Pittsburgh got on the board when RB Willie Parker took a screen pass 19 yards for a touchdown, the first postseason touchdown catch by a Steelers' running back since Rocky Bleier in Super Bowl XIII (Jan. 21, 1979).

Backup QB Jon Kitna gave the Bengals another 10-point lead after he hit WR T.J. Houshmandzadeh for a seven-yard score.

Pittsburgh responded with four straight scores. Roethlisberger completed a five-yard touchdown pass to WR Hines Ward for the final score of the first half. Ward extended his streak to five consecutive postseason games with at least one touchdown and the Steelers trailed, 17-14, at halftime.

The Steelers scored on their opening drive of the second half with a five-yard touchdown run by Bettis to give Pittsburgh its first lead at 21-17. Pittsburgh extended its lead with a trick play. WR Antwaan Randle El took a direct snap and ran to his right. He stopped and threw the ball across the field to Roethlisberger, who then threw a 43-yard touchdown strike to Wilson.

James Farrior ended the next Bengals' possession by intercepting a Kitna pass. The turnover led to a 21-yard field goal by K Jeff Reed to complete the scoring. SS Troy Polamalu also intercepted a Kitna pass.

2005 AFC Divisional Playoff

Pittsburgh 21, Indianapolis 18
Jan. 15, 2006
RCA Dome (57,449)

INDIANAPOLIS — Pittsburgh advanced to its second straight AFC Championship Game with a dramatic 21-18 victory over the Indianapolis Colts at the RCA Dome. The win propelled the Steelers to their sixth appearance in the conference title game during Bill Cowher's 14 seasons as head coach for Pittsburgh and it also marked the first time a six seed advanced to the conference championship in league history.

Avenging an earlier-season setback to the Colts, Pittsburgh came out of the gates on fire by scoring on a 10-play, 84-yard drive to open the game that culminated with a six-yard touchdown pass from QB Ben Roethlisberger to WR Antwaan Randle El.

The Steelers upped their lead to 14-0 in the first quarter after Roethlisberger connected with rookie TE Heath Miller on a seven-yard score.

Pittsburgh's defense, which kept the high-scoring Indianapolis offense in check for most of the game, allowed just a field goal in the first half as they entered the half with a 14-3 advantage.

The Steelers stretched the lead to 21-3 with under two minutes remaining in the third quarter as RB Jerome Bettis dove in from one yard out. It was his eighth career postseason rushing touchdown and the fourth straight game with a rushing score.

Indianapolis finally posted a touchdown as Peyton Manning hit Dallas Clark for a 50-yard strike early in the fourth quarter, pulling the Colts to within 21-10.

Pittsburgh took over with eight minutes off the clock but came up empty on their next offensive drive. Indianapolis then used a three-yard rushing touchdown by Edgerrin James and a successful two-point conversion to make the game 21-18 with 4:24 remaining.

After punting the ball back to the Colts with 2:31 left in the game, Pittsburgh's defense appeared to have sealed the victory by pressuring Indianapolis to minus-16 yards while giving the ball back to its' offense on the two-yard line.

However, on the first play Bettis uncharacteristically fumbled and Nick Harper picked up the ball and darted to the Colts' 42-yard line before Roethlisberger made a shoestring tackle. Five plays later, Mike Vanderjagt's potential game-tying 46-yard field goal sailed wide right with 21 seconds remaining.

Pittsburgh posted five sacks on the day, including 2.5 by LB James Farrior. It limited the Colts to just 58 yards rushing.

Roethlisberger became the first quarterback in NFL history to reach the conference championship game in each of his first two seasons as he finished 14-of-24 for 197 yards and two touchdowns and one interception.

Jan. 22, 2006
INVESCO Field at Mile High (76,174)

DENVER — Pittsburgh advanced to its first Super Bowl in 10 years as it defeated the Denver Broncos, 34-17, at INVESCO Field at Mile High. The Steelers, who won their seventh straight game overall, became the first team in NFL history to win three straight road playoff games and became the first sixth seed to play in the Super Bowl.

Pittsburgh QB Ben Roethlisberger continued his outstanding postseason play as he finished 21-of-29 for 275 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions for a passer rating of 124.9. He also added a four-yard rushing touchdown late in the game.

The Steelers jumped out to a 3-0 lead in the first quarter as K Jeff Reed booted a 47-yard field goal with 4:11 left. It was the longest postseason field goal for Pittsburgh since Norm Johnson had a 50-yarder in the 1996 AFC Wild Card Game.

Roethlisberger then hit WR Cedrick Wilson on a 12-yard touchdown pass on the first play of the second quarter to up the lead to 10-0.

After a Jason Elam field goal pulled the Broncos to within 10-3, Pittsburgh scored two times in the final two minutes of the first half to take a 24-3 halftime lead. RB Jerome Bettis scored from three yards out and WR Hines Ward hauled in a 17-yard pass from Roethlisberger with seven seconds left.

Denver used a 30-yard pass from Jake Plummer to Ashley Lelie with 3:36 left in the third quarter to trim the Steelers' advantage to 24-10. However, Reed came right back with a 42-yard field goal on the next possession to make it a 27-10 lead with 13:38 left in the game.

Mike Anderson scored on a three-yard run with just under eight minutes left to bring Denver to within 10 points (27-17), but Roethlisberger's four-yard touchdown sealed the victory for Pittsburgh.

Wilson finished with a game-high five catches for 92 yards while Ward added five receptions for 59 yards. WR Antwaan Randle El also pulled in four catches for 52 yards.

Pittsburgh held the ball for 36:07 but was outgained on the ground 97-90. The Steelers finished with 358 total yards to the Broncos' 308.

CB Ike Taylor and LB Larry Foote each collected an interception for the Pittsburgh defense, while DE Brett Keisel posted two sacks. LB Joey Porter added one sack and also forced a fumble by Plummer.

The Steelers finished the game with an astounding 63 percent (10 of 16) conversion rate on third down.

2007 AFC Wild Card Game

Jacksonville 31, Pittsburgh 29
Jan. 5, 2008
Heinz Field (63,629)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers came back from an 18-point deficit in the fourth quarter but eventually fell to the visiting Jacksonville Jaguars, 31-29, in the AFC Wild Card Game at Heinz Field. The loss snapped a four-game postseason winning streak for Pittsburgh and it marked the fourth straight loss to the Jaguars overall.

Pittsburgh jumped out to a 7-0 lead on its first drive as RB Najeh Davenport ran for his first of two one-yard touchdowns on the night. However, on the ensuing kickoff the Jaguars' RB Maurice Jones-Drew returned it 96 yards to the Steelers' three and RB Fred Taylor scored one play later to knot the score at 7-7.

Three first-half interceptions by QB Ben Roethlisberger dug Pittsburgh into a 21-7 halftime deficit. The Steelers would then fall behind 28-10 entering the fourth quarter before igniting the rally.

Roethlisberger found WR Santonio Holmes for a 37-yard touchdown pass on the first play of the final quarter to cut the lead to 28-17.

After a three-and-out by Jacksonville, Roethlisberger again engineered a scoring drive on the next possession as he hit TE Heath Miller for a 14-yard touchdown with 10:25 remaining in the game. A failed two-point conversion made the score 28-23.

CB Ike Taylor then intercepted a David Garrard pass on the second play of the ensuing Jaguars possession before Davenport pushed his way into the end zone for his second score of the night at the 6:21 mark of the fourth quarter.

Both teams were unable to score on the next two drives, which gave Jacksonville the ball back with 2:38 to go in the game. The Jaguars eventually marched down to the Steelers' seven-yard line, thanks in large part to a 32-yard run by Garrard on a fourth-and-two play earlier in the drive. K Josh Scobee booted the game-winning 25-yard field goal with 37 seconds left in the contest.

WR Hines Ward had a standout game for the Steelers by catching 10 passes for a playoff career-high 135 yards (13.5 avg.). Miller added eight catches for 85 yards and a touchdown.

Rookie LB LaMarr Woodley posted a team-high two sacks as the Steelers held Jacksonville to just 239 yards of total offense.

The Steelers stretched that lead to 21-10 as they drove 77 yards in 13 plays, taking 7:56 off the clock with their opening possession of the third quarter. QB Ben Roethlisberger found TE Heath Miller on an eight-yard touchdown reception to cap the drive.

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers put themselves in position to become the first NFL franchise to win six Vince Lombardi Trophies when they face the Arizona Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII on February 1. Pittsburgh earned their second trip to the Super Bowl in four seasons by defeating the Baltimore Ravens 23-14 in the AFC Championship Game at Heinz Field.

The Steelers faced a third-and-nine situation from their own 36-yard line barely a minute into the second quarter when Roethlisberger and WR Santonio Holmes teamed up on a 65-yard scoring strike that put the Steelers ahead 13-0.

Baltimore got on the scoreboard with 2:40 remaining in the first half when RB Willis McGahee ran into the end zone from three yards out to cut the Pittsburgh lead to 13-7.

Reed converted his third field goal of the afternoon, a 46-yarder, with 3:38 left to play in the third quarter to increase the Steelers' lead to 16-7. McGahee's one-yard run with 9:29 to play in regulation allowed Baltimore to creep within two points of the lead, 16-14.

Steelers' S Troy Polamalu ended any thoughts Baltimore had of completing the comeback when he intercepted a QB Joe Flacco pass and took it 40 yard into the end zone to clinch a 23-14 Steelers' victory.

Roethlisberger led the Steelers offensively, completing 16-of-33 passes for 255 yards with one touchdown for a passer rating of 84.8. RB Willie Parker rushed 24 times for 47 yards (2.0 avg.). Holmes caught two passes for 70 yards (35.0 avg.) and one touchdown.

NEW ORLEANS — The Steelers made their first appearance in the Super Bowl and captured their first NFL Championship with a 16-6 victory.

The veteran Vikings, meanwhile, had been to the Super Bowl twice before. The Vikings had a savvy leader in quarterback Fran Tarkenton. The Steelers had a strong defense but their quarterback, Terry Bradshaw, was unproven.

The first half was dominated by both defenses. Pittsburgh concentrated on the middle of the Minnesota defensive line. One defensive tackle, Ernie Holmes, played over Vikings' center Mick Tingelhoff, while the other tackle, Joe Greene, lined up at an angle pointed directly at Tingelhoff. Holmes sometimes took on the Vikings' center directly, allowing Greene to knife through and pursue Tarkenton. At other times, Greene would smash into Tingelhoff while Holmes looped behind him.

The only score in the first half was a safety registered by the Pittsburgh Steelers. Fran Tarkenton fumbled a handoff to Dave Osborn, scrambled to recover the ball in the end zone, and was downed by Pittsburgh defensive end Dwight White.

Leading 2-0, Pittsburgh kicked to Minnesota to open the second half and the Vikings' Bill Brown fumbled and Marv Kellum recovered for Pittsburgh at the Minnesota 30. The Steelers took four plays to go the distance, with Franco Harris taking the ball in from the 9.

Harris was named game MVP. He ran for 158 yards on 34 tries, both new highs for the Super Bowl, and Rocky Bleier added 65 yards on 17 carries. Minnesota, meanwhile, managed only 17 yards rushing.

Denied on the ground, the Vikings weren't much better in the air. Tarkenton, under constant pressure from Greene, Holmes, White, and L.C. Greenwood, completed only 11-of-26 attempts for 102 yards—an average of fewer than four yards per pass.

Despite their dominance, Pittsburgh's 9-0 lead was far from safe, and it narrowed to 9-6 in the final quarter when Matt Blair blocked Bobby Walden's punt, and Terry Brown recovered in the end zone.

After that touchdown, Pittsburgh put the game on ice with a drive that began on its 34. The big play of the drive was a 30-yard toss from Bradshaw to Larry Brown, who later scored the final TD.

Soon after the ensuing kickoff, Pittsburgh's Mike Wagner intercepted a Tarkenton pass, and the Steelers held possession until the game was nearly over.

Super Bowl X

Pittsburgh 21, Dallas 17
January 18, 1976
(80,197)

MIAMI — What were, at the time, the two most popular teams in the NFL met in Super Bowl X, and the contrast between their styles was as great as the hue of their jerseys.

The glitzy, white-clad Dallas Cowboys—"America's Team"—combined a high-tech offense and a state-of-the-art Flex Defense to put on a dazzling show each Sunday. They were easy to like, and for once, they even had something of an underdog aura, having reached the Super Bowl as a Wild Card team. The black-clad Pittsburgh Steelers, out to defend their Super Bowl victory of the year before, lived by a Steel-hard defense occasionally spelled by a grind-it-out running attack that would have been at home in the NFL of the 1930s.

The Cowboys struck first when Roger Staubach zeroed in on Drew Pearson for a 29-yard touchdown pass.

Before the end of the quarter, Pittsburgh evened the score on a seven-yard pass from Terry Bradshaw to tight end Randy Grossman. Setting up the score was a 32-yard pass to Lynn Swann, whose health was questionable because of a concussion he had suffered in the AFC Championship Game. Swann outleaped a Dallas defender, then magically kept both feet inside the sideline to make his catch.

Dallas reclaimed the lead at 10-7 only 15 seconds into the second quarter when Toni Fritsch booted a 36-yard field goal.

Later, Pittsburgh's Roy Gerela, playing at less than 100 percent because of a cracked rib he suffered making a tackle on the opening kickoff, shanked a field-goal try and Dallas went to the locker room with a 10-7 lead.

Defense continued to dominate in the scoreless third quarter. Pittsburgh sacked Staubach seven times during the game and forced him to scramble on numerous occasions. Moreover, they pressured him into an uncharacteristic 3 interceptions.

One of the interceptions set up another field-goal try by Gerela, but he pulled it left from 33 yards. Dallas safety Cliff Harris mockingly patted him on the helmet, only to be unceremoniously dumped on his hip pads by irate Pittsburgh linebacker Jack Lambert. The inspired Steelers dominated after that.

In the fourth quarter, Steelers reserve fullback Reggie Harrison blocked Mitch Hoopes's punt. The ball rolled through the end zone for a safety to cut the Cowboys' lead to 10-9. Gerela, who'd donned a corset to protect his ribs, regained his kicking touch with field goals of 36 and 18 yards to put the Steelers in front 15-10.

With 3:02 left in the game, Bradshaw lofted a long pass to game MVP Swann, who caught the ball at the five and took it over the goal line to complete a 64-yard lightning strike. Swann finished the day with 161 yards on four catches, a 40.3 average-per-catch. Gerela missed the extra point.

It took Staubach only 1:14 to get the touchdown back, completing a drive with a 34-yard bulls-eye to Percy Howard—the only pass Howard caught during his entire career.

Terry Hanratty replaced Bradshaw, still woozy from the hit suffered after his touchdown pass to Swann, but the Steelers were stalled on a fourth-and-9 at the Dallas 41 with almost a minute and a half to go. Coach Noll feared a blocked kick and called for a Rocky Bleier run that gained only 2 yards. Noll was gambling that his defense could stop the Cowboys.

Trailing only 21-17, Staubach had the ball back with more time than he usually needed to negotiate 61 yards. The Cowboys reached Pittsburgh's 38. With five seconds left, Staubach launched his final pass into the end zone. Steelers Mike Wagner batted the ball, which was caught by the Steelers, Glen Edwards and the Steelers had their second consecutive Super Bowl victory.

Super Bowl XIII

Pittsburgh 35, Dallas 31
January 21, 1979
(78,656)

MIAMI — This was more than just the first rematch in Super Bowl history: It re-staged what many still consider the most enjoyable and dramatic Super Bowl battle to that point. Opportunity—recognizing it and capitalizing on it—was the theme. Failure to embrace it would play a hand too. It was the Steelers, though, who managed a 35-31 victory.

Dallas had its chances. The Cowboys took a 14-7 lead in the second quarter when linebacker Mike Hegman simply took the ball away from Steelers quarterback Terry Bradshaw and ran 37 yards to score. But Bradshaw countered immediately with a 75-yard touchdown strike to John Stallworth.

In the third quarter, trailing 21-14, Dallas marched from its 42 to the Steelers' 10. On third-and-three, Cowboys quarterback Roger Staubach saw tight end Jackie Smith alone in the end zone. Smith slipped and fell reaching for Staubach's pass and Dallas settled for a 27-yard field goal.

Pittsburgh scored two touchdowns early in the fourth quarter—a 22-yard run by Franco Harris and an 18-yard pass from Bradshaw to Swann. Harris' score followed a pass-interference call against Dallas cornerback Benny Barnes, who was covering Swann. The mistake cost the Cowboys 33 yards. Dallas did score touchdowns with 2:27 and 22 seconds to play, on passes from Staubach to tight end Billy Joe Dupree and wide receiver Butch Johnson, but Pittsburgh held on to win, 35-31.

With the victory, the Steelers became the first team to win three Super Bowls. The two teams set a Super Bowl record for points scored.

Super Bowl XIV

Pittsburgh 31, Los Angeles 19
January 20, 1980

PASADENA, Calif. — There was a moment of heroism and self-sacrifice when an old warrior, Los Angeles Rams defensive end Jack Youngblood, announced his intention to play in his team's first Super Bowl despite a fractured leg.

There was a rush of "What if?" euphoria as the underdog Rams took a 19-17 lead into the fourth quarter.

And there was cold reality: Pittsburgh, a team with as much patience as talent, struck quickly and surely for two touchdowns in the fourth quarter and it was over. The 31-19 victory was the Steelers' fourth in the Super Bowl in only six seasons.

The signature image of Super Bowl XIV is of Steelers wide receiver John Stallworth at the Rams' 32, looking back over his head for a lofty Terry Bradshaw pass, catching it in stride just over the outstretched arms of Rams cornerback Rod Perry, and continuing into the end zone for a 73-yard touchdown.

The Steelers had taken the lead and then surrendered it in the third quarter. Bradshaw hit wide receiver Lynn Swann over the middle for a 47-yard score. The Rams came back with a 24-yard halfback pass from Lawrence McCutcheon to Ron Smith that made it 19-17 before Bradshaw-to-Stallworth put Pittsburgh ahead for good.

Los Angeles intercepted Bradshaw three times, but it was the Steelers' lone interception—by Jack Lambert—that punctuated the ending. With the score 24-19 and the Rams driving, Lambert intercepted a pass from quarterback Vince Ferragamo at the Pittsburgh 14.

For the second year in a row, Bradshaw was named the game's most valuable player after passing for 309 yards and 2 touchdowns.

Super Bowl XXX
Dallas 27, Pittsburgh 17
January 28, 1996
(76,347)

TEMPE, Ariz. — After producing 10 lopsided outcomes in its last 12 editions, the Super Bowl was due for some drama. Pittsburgh was up to the task and made a game of it, but the game turned on two interceptions by the game's Most Valuable Player, Dallas cornerback Larry Brown as the Steelers fell to the Cowboys, 27-17.

The first of Brown's interceptions came midway through the third quarter. No Steelers receiver was within 10 yards when Brown accepted Neil O'Donnell's misfired pass at the Cowboys' 38 and returned it 44 yards to the Steelers' 18. Troy Aikman's pass to Michael Irvin took Dallas to the one, and Emmitt Smith scored to give the Cowboys a 20-7 lead.

The Steelers made it 20-10 with Norm Johnson's 46-yard field goal, and then recovered an onside kick. They reduced the gap to 20-17 when Bam Morris scored from the one with 6:36 to play. With 4:15 left, Pittsburgh had the ball again at its 32 after forcing Dallas to punt.

Two plays later, Brown intercepted O'Donnell at the Steelers' 39 and returned it to the six. Smith scored from the four two plays later, and the Cowboys had locked up their record-tying fifth Super Bowl. The Steelers never led, and Dallas scored on its first three possessions—a three-yard pass from Aikman to tight end Jay Novacek and two field goals by Chris Boniol—for a 13-0 lead. Shortly before halftime, the Steelers made it 13-7 when O'Donnell threw a six-yard touchdown pass to Yancey Thigpen.

The statistical irony of the day was that O'Donnell entered the game as the NFL's career leader in fewest interceptions per pass attempt. On the game's final play, he was intercepted for the third time.

Super Bowl XL
Pittsburgh 21, Seattle 10
Feb. 5, 2006
Ford Field (68,206)

DETROIT — Pittsburgh won its fifth Super Bowl title and its first in 26 years as it captured a 21-10 victory over the Seattle Seahawks at Ford Field. The Steelers' fifth title matched the most in NFL history, tying the San Francisco 49ers and Dallas Cowboys.

Backed by predominantly a Pittsburgh crowd, the Steelers were led by Super Bowl MVP Hines Ward, who finished with a game-high 123 receiving yards on five catches (24.6 avg.) with one touchdown.

Pittsburgh struggled offensively in the first quarter as it did not gain a single first down, but found itself down only 3-0 after Seattle's Josh Brown booted a 47-yard field goal with 22 seconds remaining in the opening period.

The Steelers' offense came to life briefly on their first drive of the second quarter, including a 18-yard end-around run by Ward, but it was stalled as QB Ben Roethlisberger was picked off by the Seahawks' S Michael Boulware.

However, Pittsburgh's defense, which gave up just three points in both of its two previous games in the first half, continued to buckle down and halt any Seattle chances of extending its lead.

The Steelers finally got on the board late in the second quarter as Roethlisberger followed a block by RB Jerome Bettis and dove into the end zone for a one-yard touchdown run, giving Pittsburgh a 7-3 halftime lead. It was his second postseason rushing touchdown and the first-ever by a Steelers' quarterback in a Super Bowl.

Pittsburgh came out of halftime and stretched its lead to 14-3 on the second play of the half as RB Willie Parker darted 75 yards for a score, just 22 seconds into the third quarter. The 75-yard run was the longest in Super Bowl history, surpassing L.A. Raider Marcus Allen's 74-yard run against Washington in Super Bowl XVIII.

After a missed field goal by Brown on Seattle's first drive of the second half, the Steelers appeared on the verge of breaking the game open as they drove down to the Seahawks' seven-yard line on the ensuing drive. However, Roethlisberger threw an interception at the four-yard line to Kelly Herndon, which he returned 76 yards to the Pittsburgh 20. Three plays later Seattle scored on a 16-yard pass from QB Matt Hasselbeck to TE Jerramy Stephens to cut the lead to 14-10.

The Seahawks had an opportunity to take the lead early in the fourth quarter before Hasselbeck was picked off by CB Ike Taylor at the Steelers' five-yard line. Taylor finished with a team-best seven tackles.

Pittsburgh all but sealed the game four plays later on a gadget play, which became a part of the Steelers' arsenal throughout the season. WR Antwaan Randle El took a reverse handoff from Parker and threw a 43-yard strike to Ward, pushing the Pittsburgh lead to 21-10 with just under nine minutes remaining in the game. Randle El became the first wide receiver in Super Bowl history to throw for a touchdown.

The Steelers' defense clamped down on the final two Seattle possessions while the offense milked the clock for over four minutes in the final minutes of the game to post the victory.

Roethlisberger became the youngest starting quarterback to win a Super Bowl and finished 9-of-21 for 123 yards. Parker finished with a team-high 93 yards on 10 carries, while Bettis added 43 yards on 14 rushes.

Pittsburgh's defense racked up three sacks, including one each from CB Deshea Townsend, LB Clark Haggans and NT Casey Hampton.

Super Bowl XLIII

TAMPA — Trailing by three points with only 2:30 left in the fourth quarter, QB Ben Roethlisberger led the Steelers on an eight -play, 78-yard scoring drive, punctuated by a six-yard touchdown pass to WR Santonio Holmes to clinch the Steelers' NFL record sixth Lombardi Trophy with a 27-23 victory over the Arizona Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII.

Pittsburgh, which led most of the evening, struck first after Arizona deferred the opening kick. Roethlisberger and WR Hines Ward connected for a 38-yard gain on the Steelers' second play from scrimmage, setting up an eventual 18-yard field goal by K Jeff Reed to make it 3-0.

RB Gary Russell increased that lead to double digits, 10-0, when he plunged in from one-yard out early in the second quarter. Arizona quickly answered that score as QB Kurt Warner hit TE Ben Patrick in the back of the end zone on a one-yard scoring strike to cut the Pittsburgh lead to 10-7.

Arizona appeared as though they were going to take their first lead as the first half was set to expire, but LB James Harrison swung momentum back into Pittsburgh's favor by intercepting Warner at the goal-line, racing 100 yards behind several outstanding blocks by his teammates, and diving into the end zone with two Cardinals on his back for the longest play in Super Bowl history, and a 17-7 Steelers advantage at the half.

A 21-yard field goal by Reed capped a 16-play, 79-yard drive which took 8:39 off the third quarter clock, upping the Steelers' lead to 20-7.

Arizona got back onto the scoreboard midway through the fourth quarter as Warner tossed another one-yard score, this time to WR Larry Fitzgerald, cutting the Steelers' lead to 20-14. A costly holding penalty in the end zone against Steelers' C Justin Hartwig gave the Cardinals a safety, further decreasing the Steelers' advantage to 20-16.

On the second play following the ensuing free kick, Warner found Fitzgerald on a 64-yard scoring strike through the middle of the Steelers' defense to give Arizona its first lead of the night, 23-20.

Roethlisberger and the Steelers were down, but not out. Backed up to their own 12-yard line following a holding call, Roethlisberger promptly completed four-of-six passes, three to Holmes, including a 40-yarder that moved the ball to the Arizona six. On second-and-goal, Roethlisberger scrambled to his right and threaded a perfect pass through three defenders, where Holmes kept his toes in bounds for a six-yard touchdown reception and a 27-23 Steelers' lead with 42 seconds remaining.

Arizona had one more chance, but LB LaMarr Woodley sacked Warner, forcing a fumble recovered by DE Brett Keisel, and the Steelers had their second championship in four seasons.

Holmes was named the game's MVP after catching nine passes for 131 yards (14.6 avg.) and the game-winning touchdown reception. He caught four passes for 73 yards on the winning drive. Roethlisberger finished 21-of-30 for 256 yards with one touchdown and one interception for a passer rating of 93.2.TE Heath Miller caught five passes for 57 yards (11.4 avg.).

Defensively, Woodley recorded both Steelers' sacks, giving him two sacks in each of his four postseason games, an NFL record.
